

LOCAL NOTES

The supper hour was changed from 6 to 6:30 Monday.

The Y. M. C. A. expects to get out a supplement to THE TAR HEEL next week.

The Y. M. C. A. has already secured $220 of the $250 which it is raising in college for the support of a Y. M. C. A. secretary in China.

Mr. J. M. Neville has recovered sufficiently from the burns he received three weeks ago to be regularly at his place of business again.

Prof M. C. S. Noble entertained the members of the Kappa Sigma fraternity at a stag dinner at his home on Pittsboro Avenue Monday night.

The frame-work of the new S. A. E. fraternity hall is rapidly approaching completion. The weatherboarding and shingles are now being applied.

Dr. J. D. Bruner has been requested to act as supply pastor for the Fifth Baptist church of Washington City during the month of August 1907.

The art editors of the Yackety Yack have already secured a number of fine drawings. The annual this year bids fair to surpass the one of last year in point of art.

Fifteen of the twenty-one games scheduled so far by Manager Robinson will be played on the Hill. There will be a game with Cornell here on March 28th.

S. L. Herndon, the hardware man, has completed his new store building and has moved part of his stock into it. C. B. Griffin is now occupying part of the store formerly occupied by Herndon.

A Building and Loan Association has recently been chartered in the village. The incorporators are Messrs. W. S. Roberson, J. M. Neville, T. E. Best, E. S. Merritt, C. T. Woollen, Dr. W. B. McNider, and Professor M. C. S. Noble.

The preliminary contest for the George Washington University debate was held in the Di Hall last night. There were only two speakers, Messrs. R. C. Day and W. P. Stacy, Mr. J. B. Coghill retiring from the contest at the last moment, and these two will constitute the Carolina team.

The Societies.

The Phi society had for debate Saturday night the query, Resolved, That the Democratic party has the wrong attitude toward trusts. The affirmative won and Mr. C. S. Smith made the best speech.

Up in the Di hall the regular exercises were done away with, it being the night for the selection of the society's scrub debater for the Georgia preliminary debate. There was only one applicant for the place, Mr. N. E. Day, who was elected, in the absence of any competitor.

Star Course Tuesday.

It has been a long time since the societies have favored their members with the customary free tickets to a show, but now they promise to make up for their procrastination by presenting an especially good attraction. Mr. Henry Lawrence Southwick, dean of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, Mass., eminent in the New England States for his lectures and interpretative Shaksperian recitals, will appear in Gerard Hall Tuesday night under the Lyceum management. Mr. Southwick stands among the first in his profession, and his lecture should be an interesting one.

Exercises Tomorrow.

Tomorrow, Washington's Birthday, will be a holiday in all departments of the University. According to custom, appropriate exercises will be held jointly by the Dialectic and Philanthropic societies in Gerard Hall in the morning. There will be two speakers, Mr. W. H. S. Burgwyn, for the Phi, and Mr. C. C. Barnhardt for the Di.

Shakspeare Club.

The monthly meeting of the Shakspeare Club was held last night in Dr. Hume's library. Dr. Hume made an interesting lecture on the history of the club from 1886, the date of its foundation, to 1904.

The regular program, very full and rich, and dealing with the dramatic handling of history, was as follows: "Faulconbridge, Humorist and Patriot," by J. J. Parker; "The Selfish Sentimentalist, Richard the Second," by Mr. O. V. Hicks; "Marlowe's Tragic Method in Edward the Second Compared With Shakspeare's," by Mr. S. Rae Logan; and "Bolingbroke, or Success and Nemesis in Practical Politics," by Mr. Strowd Jordan.

Miss Howe Entertains.

Miss Annie Howe entertained a number of friends at "Walfrieden," Dr. George Howe's home, Saturday night. Those who enjoyed Miss Howe's hospitality were, Miss Heck, of Raleigh, with Mr. Holt Haywood, Miss Cowper, of Raleigh with Mr. W. S. O'B Robinson, Miss Morrison with Mr. Bert James, Miss Cook with Mr. Hubert Hill, Miss Cantey Venable with Mr. J. E. Pogue, Miss Graves with Mr. T. H. Sutton, and Messrs. Joe Cheshire, R. R. Bridgers, J. M. Robinson, and J. T. McAden.

Western Football.

The athletic atmosphere of the Middle West colleges, clouded for more than a year by constant wranglings over reforms, alleged poor spirit, and a lack of fair play, has been cleared. A "big-four" group has been formulated, composed of Chicago, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, resembling in many respects the "big four" of the East. The fraternalized Universities have agreed to settle all differences at once and unite in a closer alliance. They have drawn up a set of resolutions which are likely to stand as a landmark in the "purity" movement, and have gone so far as to arrange a schedule of football games for as much as four years in advance.

Brain and Eye HOW EYE-STRAIN RETARDS STUDY.

Many students possessing superior minds oftentimes fancy themselves dull because they fail in their studies.

The reason is simply this: They are afflicted with so much eye strain that it requires nearly all the nervous force they possess to fix the eye upon their books, thereby exhausting the energy of the brain.

Many students unwisely sacrifice their health in attaining an education, because of the large amount of brain-strain sustained in the close use of their eyes, though their vision seems excellent. This form of brain-strain is easily detected by an expert and most always remedied by glasses properly adjusted.

If you break your glasses don't send them away for repair, taking the chances of delay and mistakes. Just bring the pieces to the office and I will do the rest.
