The Modern Literature Club will meet in Alumni Hall at 7:30 this evening.

The Scrubs will play the Elon College baseball team here tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. F. B. Rankin spent the weekend in Greensboro on business for the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Odd Number Club will meet in the English Conference room, Old East building, tomorrow night at 7:30.

Rev. N. M. Watson, for three years pastor of the Methodist church of the village, spent Thursday on the Hill.

Professor M. C. S. Noble delivered the address at the closing exercises of the Granville county public high schools Friday.

President Venable went to Raleigh Monday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the trustees of the University.

An extra charge of fifteen cents will be made for grandstand seats for all the games from now until the close of the season.

The members of the Oak Ridge club entertained the members of O. R. I. team at an informal spread at the Y. M. C. A. building Monday night.

The Seniors enjoyed their first thrill of graduation Saturday. All had to report to Professor Gore and hand in records of the hours to their credit.

President Venable and Professors Collier Cobb and N. W. Walker attended the conference of the Southern Educational Board at Pinehurst April 9th and 12th. Drs. C. Alphonso Smith, Archibald Henderson, and J. D. Bruner, were also in attendance at the conference.

Cards have been received on the Hill announcing the marriage of Miss Nina Josephine Wheeler and Mr. Thomas Jackson Gold. The wedding will occur in High Point on April 23th. Mr. Gold is an alumnus of the University, graduating with the class of 1903, and has many friends here who will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

The Northern Trip.

Tomorrow afternoon the team leaves on its Northern trip. Saturday it will play the first game of the trip with the Danville Athletic Club at Danville, and on Monday it will meet the University of Virginia's team at Charlottesville. From Charlottesville the team will go to Washington City where it will play Georgetown on the 16th and George Washington on the 17th. These games will complete the schedule for the Northern trip, and the team will return home Wednesday.

Montgomery, who is now in Charlotte, was missed at second yesterday afternoon, and will not be on the Hill for the V. P. I. game this afternoon. He will join the team at Greensboro for the Northern games, but James will be absent from his position at third during the last two games, being called home to attend the wedding of his sister. As two of the substitutes, Orr and Davis, accompanied the Glee Club on its trip Monday, the team will not be in its strongest trim while away. Nevertheless it should be able to put up some good ball.

The Oak Ridge Game.

The Oak Ridge game was not as much to the liking of the spectators as it would have been had Carolina made the score more than 1 to 0, but, on the whole, it was a fair bit of ball. A muddy diamond and a chilly nip in the atmosphere kept the weather conditions from being all that could be desired and contributed somewhat to the slowness of the contest.

In this number of the program Carolina's fielding was considerably better than her stick-work. Not a man on the Varsity indulged in an error, and from Story's pitching you would have judged that he had been in the box all his life. He had plenty of steam and nice control. Twice he aroused a batter's expectation by handing out three balls, only to follow with three right through the middle of the plate. At the bat and on the bases the team lacked a great deal of averaging up to its work in the field.

There was no scoring until the eighth, when a base on balls followed by a two-bagger by Story won the game. Once, in the sixth, the prospects seemed good for Oak Ridge to score, but they failed to materialize.

Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.

Batteries: Carolina, Story and Rogers; Oak Ridge, Mayberry and Swink. Umpire: Mr. "Po Will" Stem.

The Dances.

The Order of Gimghouls held their annual dance in the Bynum gymnasium Thursday night. Some seventy-five couples were present and the dance was in every way a thoroughly enjoyable one. The german figures were led by Mr. J. B. James with Miss Marie Dixon, of Atlanta, and Mr. N. C. Curtis with Miss Margaret Alexander.

On the following night occurred the regular April german of the University German Club, which was led by Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson, Jr., in the place of Mr. Holt Haywood, who was absent from the Hill. The April german finishes the merry-making on the Hill until Commencement. From now on the socially inclined will be forced to prepare for the little interview with the faculty in May.

A large number of visiting young ladies were on the Hill during the end of the week to attend the dances. The music, which was of the first order, was furnished on both evenings by Levin's Orchestra, of Raleigh.
