

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. R. D. Eames, Ex-'09, of Salisbury was on the Hill last week.

The football team leaves this afternoon for Philadelphia.

Mr. Thomas Franklin Sanford, '96, was married to Miss Mary Roberta Hogshead at Chattanooga, Tenn., on September 18.

The New Hanover Club met last week. Several new men were taken in and some changes made in the constitution.

Mr. Stuart G. Noble, '07, passed through here last week on his way from his home in Florida to Horn-er, where he will teach this year.

Mr. Foye Roberson, who has been in college here for several years, left Saturday to enter Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia.

The University Magazine has received from the University an appropriation of $150.00, which will be used to pay for original contribu-tions.

Mr. A. F. Jackson, a former sec-etary of the Y. M. C. A., was here last week. He was on his way to Philadelphia to continue his med-ical course.

Dr. Worth who was to have addressed the Tuesday night meet-ing will address the Thursday night meeting. Everybody cordially invited to be present.

The Athletic Association met last night and adopted Articles I and II of the new constitution. Action on the others was deferred until next Wednesday night.

Mr. J. F. Spruill has been on the Hill taking the examinations which he was unable to take last fall on account of sickness. After having passed successfully, he left Satur-day for New York.

The Warrenton High School Club met Tuesday night and reorganized. The following officers were elected: John B. Palmer, president; W. B. Davis, vice-president; James Patter-son, secretary and treasurer.

There are to date a total of 227 members of the Y. M. C. A., 137 old members and 90 new ones. It is the purpose of the membership committee to get at least 400.

Dr. St. Clair McKelway, of Brooklyn, New York, will be the principal speaker at the celebration of University Day here on October 12, this year. Dr. McKelway is widely known throughout the coun-try as a scholarly editor and author and as an able speaker. The Uni-versity is fortunate in securing his services.

The Mercerian, a magazine pub-lished at Mercer University, in making out a list of the best maga-zine editors in the South, chose Mr. H. H. Hughes, the editor last year of our Magazine, as the All-South-editor-in-chief.

The Moot Court.

The first session of the Moot Court was held Monday night, with Dr. Ruffin acting as judge. The new officers were sworn in, the jury was empaneled, and the court pro-ceeded to try the civil case, Mrs.

Matilda Brewster vs. Elizabeth City. Mr. W. H. S. Burgwyn was the attorney for the plaintiff, and and Messrs. G. G. Moore, H. S. Kirkpatrick, and Squire Lawrence represented the city. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

Resolutions of Respect.

Into the hopes and plans for this new year of our University life comes the sad message that Romy Story is dead. To us this is an ir-reparable loss for he was a man in the broadest sense, unselfish, speak-ing evil of no one and thinking no evil himself. In all of his efforts he was earnest, loyal and fair.

We admired him for his manliness, respected him for his kindness, loved him for himself. Therefore be it resolved by the students of the University of North Carolina, in body assembled:—

First,—That we miss Romy Story; a place is vacant which none can fill; that we have a grief in our hearts which years cannot efface.

Second,—That we mourn with his family over our mutual loss.

Third,—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, to the Watauga News, to The Tar Heel, and to the State papers, and that a copy be written in the minutes of the Athletic Association of the University of North Carolina.

C. H. HERTY, Chairman,
GEORGE M. FOUNTAIN,
J. BURT JAMES.

Whereas, God in his infinite wis-dom has seen fit to remove from our midst our beloved friend and fel-low member Romy Story, therefore be it resolved:

First. That the Dialectic Socie-ty loses in him a faithful member and the University a loyal son.

Second, That although we are deeply conscious of our loss, we re-joice in the memory of a life nobly spent and a manhood of strength and purity.

Third. That we extend to his be-reaved family our sincere sympathy and express to them our apprecia-tion of his character and manly conduct while in our midst.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the min-utes of the society and a copy sent to The Tar Heel and University Magazine.

THE BEST INVESTMENT

The best investment a student can make is a Fountain Pen.

Because:

- (1) It saves his time.
- (2) Improves his work.
- (3) It costs very little.

The best men in College use them of course. You can't get a better Pen anywhere than I'll sell you. You can't get a better price than I'll give you.

Prices $1.00 for good ones; $2.00 and $2.50 for the Waterman.
