

LOCAL NOTES.

Dr. Lamson spent Monday in Raleigh.

Mr. F. B. Rankin spent Tuesday night in Mebane.

The Biological Journal Club will meet Saturday night at eight o'clock at the residence of Dr. I. H. Manning.

Drs. C. H. Herty, T. J. Wilson, and R. O. E. Davis, and Professor Bernard attended the football game Saturday.

La Circle des Conversations Francaise met last night in the Y. M. C. A. A goodly number was present. The conversation was interesting and instructive.

The members of the football team left yesterday for Columbia, S. C., where they play the Clemson College team today. They were accompanied by Mr. Drury Phillips.

Dr. C. Alphonso Smith "cinched his boot" on the students by donating five dollars to the fund for defraying the expenses of the band on the Richmond trip.

"Der Deutscher Verein" held an interesting meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building Monday night, practically all the members being present. The conversation was mainly about the city of Berlin.

Dr. Thomas Hume, Professor Emeritus, has been filling the pulpit of the First Baptist Church, Greensboro, for three Sundays. Many old alumni have been interested in the services.

Miss Lewis, of Goldsboro, who has been taking a short library course here under the direction of Dr. L. R. Wilson, left Tuesday for her home where she will take charge of the public library.

Arrangements have been made to have new fixtures throughout installed in the postoffice here. The fixtures will be of beautiful stained oak, and will be up to date in every respect. About a hundred new boxes will be added, which will serve in a large degree to alleviate the present undesirable condition of having the mail of five or ten men in one box. The boxes will all have combinations instead of keys.

Tennis Meet with Guilford.

The Varsity tennis team will meet a team from Guilford College on Mr. Gresham's court in Battle's Park Saturday and Monday, November 2nd and 4th at three o'clock.

Guilford has a strong and skillful team and with Fountain and Orr in good trim, there will be an interesting meet. The doubles will be played on Saturday and the singles on Monday and the admission fee will be twenty-five cents.

Seniors Defeat Juniors.

Seniors 5, Juniors 0 was the score of the game Tuesday. The only touchdown was made in the first minute of play. The teams were almost evenly matched with the advantage a little in the Senior's favor. Their offensive work was better than that of their opponents. But after the touchdown made early in the first half neither side could score.

Fountain for the Seniors received the kick off and immediately punted back down the field. Eagles and Britt were there to receive it and Eagles carried the ball to the three yard line before he was downed. The touchdown was made in one rush. The Seniors failed to kick goal.

The rest of the game was taken up in vain attempts at touchdowns, the Seniors for the most part carrying the ball. There was much fumbling on both sides.

Britt, Groome, and Ruffin played best for the Seniors, while Edwards, Coffin, Johnston and Yokely did the starring for the Juniors.

The line-up:

Seniors		Juniors
Coghill	l. e.	Baucum and Hines
Muse	l. t.	Jones
Gunter	l. g.	Yokely
Eagles	e.	Parker
Matthews	r. g.	Moore
Williams	r. t.	Cox
Britt	r. e.	Edwards
Fountain	q. b.	Johnston
Groome	l. h. b.	Currie
Frazier	r. h. b.	Coffin
Ruffin	f. b.	Allen

Umpires, Hanes and Daniels; referee, Jacobs. Time of halves, 20 and 15 minutes.

Chemical Journal Club.

The 61st meeting of the Chemical Journal Club was held Monday evening at 7:30 in the chemical laboratory and the following program was carried out:

- "Color Reactions of Lignocelluloses," J. Q. Jackson
- "Applications of the Grignard Reaction," S. Jordan.
- "The Claisen Condensation," W. C. Woodard.
- "New Melting Point Apparatus," A. S. Wheeler.

Large, fresh oysters received every day at Pickard & Stroud's Cafe.

To the Men who Hold the Line.

I
Oh, the full-back bows to the cheering crowd,
And the halves, and the quarter, too,
And the praise ascends to the plucky ends
Who fight for the White and Blue;
To none so great do I dedicate
This poor little verse of mine—
But here's to those in the fighting rows,
To the men who hold the line!

II
You watch the game and you'll all exclaim:
"Just look at that fellow run!"
And you'll shout and roar when the struggle's o'er
That the game was only won
By the full-back's pluck in that splendid buck
That carried him to the goal;
But you don't see fit to think a bit
Of the man who made the hole.

III
Yes, the full-back has his meed of thanks,
And the quarter "did it all",
And the halves are praised, and a voice is raised
For the ends who took the ball;
To none so great do I dedicate
This poor little verse of mine—
But here's to those in the fighting rows,
To the men who hold the line!

Magazine Prizes

Realizing the fact that the sketch department in the University Magazine is one of the best features of the Magazine, the committee in charge of its endowment fund has decided to give a special prize of two dollars for the best sketch appearing in each issue. The sketch department as represented in the University Magazine is an advance over similar departments in other college magazines, and it is hoped that this offer will materially increase its excellence.

In the hope of creating an interest in the college topics department, the committee will give another prize of two dollars for the best article about current college affairs. This department was not represented in the last issue of the Magazine for want of material. This fact shows that something is wrong. Who will capture the two dollars?

Fruits, cigars, cigarettes and tobacco of all kinds, Pickard & Stroud's.

Fresh lot of National Biscuit Company's cakes and crackers at Pickard & Stroud's.

The attendance in the societies Saturday night was scanty, but the regular program was carried out in each.

Fresh lot Wiley's box candy at Pickard & Stroud's.

Give Pickard & Stroud your orders for candy for the dance. They will get you Wiley's, fresh.

See Allen at No 2 Old West, for your pennants. Just received a big line. He also has fraternity pennants and sofa pillows.

When in need of stationery, inks etc., see Pickard & Stroud, opposite the Campus.
