

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. G. O. Rogers is out of the game for a while with a sprained knee.

Mr. J. B. Coghill, '08, has returned from a visit to his home at Henderson.

Mr. H. B. Wadsworth has recovered from his sprained ankle and is in the game again.

Mr. F. W. Hawley, a post graduate student, spent last week at his home in Charlotte.

Dr. C. L. Raper will deliver a lecture at Wake Forest College next Tuesday night.

A force of hands are working on some paths of the campus, laying brick gutters alongside of them and improving them generally.

A delightful informal reception and dance was tendered the visiting young ladies at the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity hall Saturday morning.

Mr. L. M. Ross, '08, by an unfortunate accident while walking in Battle's Park Sunday afternoon, had his collar bone broken. He left for his home Tuesday.

On Friday afternoon the Order of Gingham gave a dance to the visiting young ladies. The dance was held at the Gingham lodge and was entirely informal.

Dr. P. H. Macon of Warrenton was on the Hill Wednesday to see his son, Mr. G. H. Macon, who was sick with an attack of appendicitis. Mr Macon has nearly recovered.

At the preliminary freshman debate held in the Phi Hall on Friday night the following men were chosen as the best speakers: Messrs. Teague, Dees, Guess, and McCoy.

The Mecklenburg County Club met Tuesday and elected the following officers: President, George Thomas; Vice-President, J. A. Fore; Secretary and Treasurer, R. W. Watt.

Mr. R. S. McNeill who has been critically ill with pneumonia for some time, is slowly improving. His sister, Miss Mary McNeill, has been with him since the beginning of his illness.

Dr. L. R. Wilson has returned from Washington, where he went as the representative of the University to attend the International Conference of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. W. H. Sory, '10, who left college about two weeks ago to travel for the Traymore Tailoring Company of Philadelphia, was here Sunday. Mr. Sory's territory is the western part of North Carolina.

Mr. S. W. Hodge, '09, was elected assistant business manager of the Magazine by the Phi Society Saturday night, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. C. W. Howard, who has left College.

Dr. L. R. Wilson has returned from Washington, where the went as the representative of the University to attend the meeting of the International Conference of the Young Men's Christian Association-

Mr. C. W. Howard, '09, has left to teach school at Saritoga, N. C. On the night before his departure his class mates in the middle entrance of the Old East gave him an informal banquet at Pickard and Strouds. The many friends of Mr. Howard wish him the greatest success in his new work.

The Y. M. C. A. gave a most enjoyable reception in its home last evening. A large number of people, students, professors and townspeople were present to partake of and contribute to the general pleasure. The building was tastefully decorated with innumerable college pennants, and large palms. All formality was thrown aside and everybody had a good time.

The Dances.

The Order of the Gingham gave its annual dance in the Bynum Gymnasium last Thursday night. The post-ponement of the dances from the previous week made the number of young ladies present much smaller than usual. But notwithstanding this fact, the dance was a brilliant success. The music of Prof. Levin's orchestra was of a very high grade, and the red and black decorations made the old gym a pretty place. The figures were led by Jim Hanes with Miss Annie Ludlow of Winston. There were only between twenty-five and thirty-five couples on the floor, and consequently the hall was not too crowded.

On the following night the German Club gave its semi-annual german. The music, decorations, and china-service were the same as on the previous evening. This dance was lead by Hubert Hill with Miss Annie Howe.

The dances were great successes, notwithstanding the weather. The rain did all in its power to mar the festivities. It broke up the proposed Varsity-Scrub game and prevented all driving and walking. But the spirits of the young people were not to be downed and everyone enjoyed him or herself thoroughly. The list of couples which follows will serve for both dances, but of course the pairs were arranged differently.

Niss Fennil with Jim Hanes, Miss Gray with Don Ray, Miss Hassell with C. Mitchel, Miss Ludlow with Bert James, Miss James with W. P. Jacobs, Miss London with Fred Sutton, Miss Howe with Hubert Hill, Miss Wilson with J. L. Morhead, Miss L. Venable with Manning Venable, Miss Springs with Manlius Orr, Miss Drewy with C. O. Roberson, Miss Jene Venable with F. Whitaker, Miss Cantey Venable with R. Guion, Miss Pou with Stanly Winborne, Miss Gwyer with Mr. Hickerson, Miss McRae with L. A. Blackburn, Miss Koyner with Don Gilliam, Jr., Miss Shull with Fred Stem, Miss Klutz with Ben Dawson, Miss White with Mr. Star, Miss Webb with Paul Collin, Miss Banks with R. H. Chatam, Miss Nellie Roberson with N. Cannady, Miss Bessie Roberson with C. Woollen, Miss Blue Roberson with Bob McArthur, Miss Thompson with Mr. Bryan, Miss Huske with Mr. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. Mebane, Dr. and Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Whit Webb, Dr. and Mrs. Mangum, Dr. and Mrs. Howe, Dr. and Mrs. Herty, Dr. and Mrs. Lawson. Stags: Kemp Battle, Farrior, Thomas, Crowell, Rose, Nash, Dunn, Osborne, Dr. Hanilton, McNider, Simmons, Thompson, McNeill. Chaperones: Mesdames Howe, Klutz, Pou, McRae.

Y. M. C. A. Report.

Secretary F. B. Rankin of the Y. M. C. A. has issued a report for last year's work, showing whence the money came, from whom it came whither it went, and the indirect results thereof. The report shows that $1042.95 was received from students, faculty, alumni, and friends for budget, missions, and membership fees. In addition to this, $824.22 was received from entertainments, from sale of books, and from incidentals. The total receipts were $1867.17.

The money was expended mainly for the salary of Secretary Rankin and C. L. Boynton, Office Secretary in Shanghai, China, for printing calanders, etc., for books, and for socials and reception.

The report also shows that 288 men were enrolled in mission and Bible classes, that forty-seven men attended various conventions, that there have been nine volunteers for foreign missions, for Y. M. C. A. secretaryship, and for the ministry, that twenty-four men were engaged in leading mission and Bible study groups, that eight men taught Sunday Schools in the neighborhood, and that forty-eight men served on committees in the Association.

Secretary Rankin is to be congratulated upon his excellent management of the affairs of the Association. He hopes to be able to do even more this year—to improve the reading room, furnish the chapel, and extend the social efforts that were so successful last year.
