

New Dance Regulations.

The committee, consisting of Messrs. S. Rae Logan, M. Robins, and M. Orr, appointed some time ago by President Rand of the Senior class to consider ways and means whereby the Commencement festivities might be made more open and democratic, met with a committee from the faculty and from the German Club, and drew up resolutions that are substantially as follows:

1. That the Senior class elect three members of the faculty to appoint a nominating committee of four Seniors and three Juniors.

2. That these seven men shall select not more than ten Seniors and six Juniors to stand for election as ball managers; that five Seniors and two Juniors be elected by the Senior class and by those who pay a stipulated fee.

3. That the seven men thus elected shall out of their own number elect a Senior as chief manager.

4. That the election shall be officered by the Senior class, and that the money shall be paid to the Bursar.

5. That a member of the faculty committee shall call the nominating committee together and preside, but not vote.

6. That the surplus left after the expenses have been paid shall be left in possession of the Bursar.

At a meeting of the Senior class Monday afternoon the resolutions were adopted with the added provisions that Freshmen should not be allowed to vote, and that the nominating committee should appoint in every case the full number of ten Seniors and six Juniors.

Again the Freshmen and Sophs Tie.

For the second time this season the Freshmen and Sophomores tried to see who had the better football team. The game showed that they were pretty evenly matched. Neither side scored nor was either goal in danger more than once during the game. The game was slow and was not marked by any sensational plays.

The game was a surprise to those who had seen the two teams play before, not so much in that there was no score, but because the playing was not so hard as is usual between the Sophomore and Freshman classes.

Avery, Williams, McLeod and McCoy played good ball for the Sophomores, while for the Freshmen, Long, Tillett, and Belk did well.

The line-up:

The Junior Banquet.

On Wednesday night, the 20th of November from nine to one, the class of 1909 held its annual banquet. The banquet was served in Pick-ard's Hotel by that master caterer Marse Jessie. It was a great success. The menu was excellent; the speeches of both the professors and the students were a happy combination of the serious and the humorous. Toastmaster W. L. Long kept things going with a zest.

All the speeches were a source of helpfulness as well as pleasure. Dr. Herty spoke on "Shiftiness;" Mr. K. D. Battle responded for the class on "The call of the South for Men." Prof. H. H. Williams spoke on "The Need of a great Individual"; Mr. Monroe Gaddy responded with a talk on "Athletics." Prof. Vermont spoke on "Kind-heartedness;" Mr. O. J. Coffin responded on "Class Athletics." Prof. Noble spoke on "Old North Carolina;" Mr. J. W. Umstead replied with a talk on "Narrow Mindedness in College Life."

Impromptus were made by Messrs. S. W. Hodge, J. T. Johnston, M. J. Jones, C. B. Spicer, T. J. McManis, J. H. Allen, and others. After the close of the banquet the Class gathered around the College well and with songs and yells gave expression to their loyalty to '09.

Y. M. C. A. Show Monday Night

The first entertainment this year under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Gerrard Hall Monday night, when The Charles Edward Clarke Concert Company will appear. This company has an enviable reputation as a dispenser of a high grade class of vocal and instrumental music that delights all classes of people.

The Y. M. C. A. last year established an exceedingly high standard for the shows given under its auspices, and Secretary Rankin and Mr. Jas. A. Gray, Jr., of the entertainment committee, are making strong efforts to maintain this high standard. There seems to be little question about the fact that they have not failed in this instance.

The company is headed by Chas. Edward Clarke, a baritone of wide experience and ability, surpassed by no baritone on the concert stage. The other members of the company are all experienced artists of the highest order. Miss Edith Adams, violoncellist, known not only throughout America, but also abroad as a finished musician and charming girl. Mrs. Maime Holmes Thompson, a soprano with a wonderfully sweet voice and commanding stage presence. Mr. Wm. Erhart Snyder, pianist, who has had long experience, both as a teacher and as a successful concert performer. These four artists will present a program that will be composed entirely of music, but such music as will be within the reach of all to enjoy. Mr. Clarke will give for one number "The Spanish Dual Scene," a reading for which Max Heinrich has written an accompaniment for the piano, which will be played by Mr. Snyder, together with a 'cello oblige which has been especially written for Miss Adams by Mr. Heinrich.
