

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. Colvard Bowers is in the infirmary, afflicted with the mumps.

Mr. Charles A. Misenheimer, Jr., is sick in the infirmary with the grip.

Mr. Buck Harris, ex-'06, of Raleigh, has returned to college to study law.

Subscription money is past due. Please pay the business manager. He needs the money.

Mr. McLeod, '10, has accepted a position with a wholesale grocery firm in Greenville, S. C.

Mr. Isham King, ex-'06, of Sanford, has returned to college and has entered the Senior class.

Mr. J. T. Johnston who had his shoulder operated on during the holidays is getting along nicely.

Mr. Ruffin Smith, of the A. & M., was on the Hill Monday visiting his brother Mr. Henry Smith.

Mr. S. T. Stancill, ex-'06, finished last fall the work required for graduation, and is now teaching at Burlington.

Mr. D. B. Barnes, of Winston-Salem, is spending some time here, employed in the office of the University Press.

Dr. L. R. Wilson made the talk before the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night. Prof. H. H. Williams will make the talk next Tuesday night.

Since The Tar Heel last appeared, heating fixtures have been installed in the Y. M. C. A. building. "Big" Rankin now has a little comfort, for he not only has warm quarters, but he is also bothered no longer by that oft-repeated question, "When you goin' to have your joint heated, Fatty?"

Mr. B. S. Abernathy, who was for a number of years a student at the University, was married at Charleston, W. Va., to Miss Nina A. DuLaney, of Slate Mills, Va., on December 21. Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy are here now spending some time with Mr. Abernathy's people.

Mr. W. E. Lindsay has been recommended to succeed Mr. W. A. Lloyd as postmaster at this place, but his appointment has not as yet been confirmed. Mr. Lloyd has made an excellent postmaster, being uniformly kind and courteous in his dealings with the public, and his many friends among the students regret to know that he may soon be deposed.

A committee was appointed from each of the literary societies last fall to consider ways and means whereby the intercollegiate debaters might be rewarded for their persistent and arduous work. The committee decided upon a monogram for a watch fob, but as there was some dispute in the societies over the kind of monogram the matter is still open. It is believed, however, that some distinguishing mark will certainly be awarded.

A Junior Prom.

Naughty Nine met Tuesday afternoon at the call of vice-president J. T. Johnston to consider the advisability of having a Junior Promenade. It was the unanimous opinion of the class that this dance will be a good thing. It will break the monotony of the winter and will contribute a great deal to the social life of the students. It will serve to remove social friction and to harmonize and unify social life. A committee composed of Messrs. George Thomas, Kemp Battle, and Frank Graham was appointed to confer with Dr. Venable concerning the dance. If this plan materializes, the dance will be held on the night of February the twenty-first. Another meeting will be held on Thursday to receive the report of the committee and to take final action upon it.

The Rhodes Scholarship.

The examination of the candidates for the Rhodes Scholarship to Oxford, England, will be held at this University on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 21 and 22. The candidates will be examined Tuesday on translation from Latin into English, Latin prose, and arithmetic, and Wednesday on translation from Greek into English, Latin grammar, Greek grammar, and algebra or geometry.

The candidates are Stuart G. Noble, of Florida, a graduate of the University; O. R. Rand, of Smithfield, a member of the Senior class; J. D. Sidbury, of Holly Ridge, a Senior at Trinity College.

Immediately after the examination the papers will be forwarded to Oxford to be graded, and the successful contestant will be chosen from those who pass the qualifying examination.

Entertainment Saturday Night.

The Whitney Brothers Quartette will appear in Gerrard Hall Saturday night under the management of the Star Course committee. This is the fourth number on the Star Course program, and it promises to be one of the best. The quartette is composed of four brothers—William F. Whitney, first bass; Alvin M., first tenor; Edwin M., second tenor and reader; Yale B., second bass.

The company comes highly recommended and as nothing pleases the University students more in the line of entertainment than a good male quartette it is believed that the entertainment will be a decided success. The tickets are on sale at the University drug store.

Hare and Hounds Run.

Beginning Saturday afternoon at 4:30 there will be a regular weekly hare and hounds run for all men interested in getting up their wind, and hardening themselves for athletics later in the spring. While primarily for track men, it is desired that as many men as would care for a regular, cross country run be at the gymnasium at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, weather permitting. This first run will not be over a mile and a half, across country, following a paper trail. Two men, well known distance runners, will carry the paper, with a two minutes start. Any hound gaining on the hares will be hare at the next run. The first trail will probably be laid by Captain Bridgers and some other distance man, either Everett or Ruffin. A suitable costume would be full sleeved jersey, gymnasium pants, and some low quartered shoes, spikes if you have them.

We want as many men out for these runs as possible. Track is certainly the weakest branch of our intercollegiate athletics. We wait too long in the spring before we get busy at our training. Cross country running is a popular phase of track athletics in the northern colleges, and their excellence is in no small degree due to their long and regular out door runs. A regular weekly two and three mile run for the next two months will do wonders for a man's wind and endurance, the two vital factors in the making of a track athlete. There is room in the woods for all of you. We want at least twenty five men to follow the first trail.

Three Debates This Spring.

The University has three debates scheduled for this spring. The first one will be held in Chapel Hill on the first Friday in April. Georgia is the opponent on this date, and a great contest is to be expected, for Georgia is putting forth every effort in her power to stop Carolina's steady succession of victories and turn the trick in her own favor. The query is "Resolved, That the State should not prescribe a Maximum Railway Rate." Carolina has the affirmative. The preliminary contest will be held about February 15, and those who intend to enter the contest should notify Mr. J. W. Umstead, Jr., by January 15.

The next debate on the program will be held on the third Friday night in March with George Washington University. The query is "Resolved, That the Open Shop Subverses the Interests of the Laboring Classes." Carolina has the negative. This debate will also be held in Chapel Hill.

The final debate is that with Virginia. The date and question have not yet been decided upon.

It was thought late last fall that it would be possible to form a triangular debating league with Virginia and Johns Hopkins, the plan having been proposed by Virginia. Later communications, however, from Virginia advised that Johns Hopkins was unwilling to enter the league. It is to be hoped that such a league can be formed next year.
