

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. S. T. Stancill was on the Hill Saturday.

Mr. Hal Worth, '05, of Ashboro, was here last week.

Prof. Edwin Mims, of Trinity College, was here the first of the week.

Mr. P. H. Royster, alias "Coon," spent a few days in Raleigh this week.

Mr. Clyde Barbee, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is reported to be improving.

Rev. J. W. Wildman made a very interesting talk Tuesday night before the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Hampden Hill, '07, who has a government position at Raleigh, was on the Hill this week.

Mr. L. W. Parker was called home Monday on account of the serious illness of his father.

Coach Floyd Simmons left Tuesday for Charlotte where he will open a law office in the New Law Building.

Mr. Wayne Archer, ex-'07, who has a position with the First National Bank of Durham, was on the Hill this week.

Prof. Collier Cobb gave an illustrated lecture at Peace Institute Friday night on "Sand Reefs of the Carolina Coast."

A goodly number of students went to Durham last week to see "The Lion and the Mouse" and "Buster Brown."

Mr. R. S. McNeill, of Fayetteville, who last fall was so dangerously ill with pneumonia, has returned to college.

Work has again been begun on the tennis park back of the gym, and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

Messrs B. G. Muse and L. P. Matthews spent Monday and Tuesday this week in Durham and Raleigh on Yackety Yack business.

Dr. and Mrs. R. O. E. Davis entertained a party of students and young ladies at supper at their home on Franklin Street Saturday night.

The regular monthly meeting of the Odd Number Chapter of Sigma Upsilon was held Friday night, and an interesting program was presented.

Rev. W. E. Cox, of Wilmington, an alumnus of the University, preached a most instructive sermon at the Episcopal church Sunday morning.

Messrs. J. J. Parker and Stanley Winborne were elected Saturday night as Washington's Birthday orators by the Di and Phi Societies, respectively.

Last week we were misinformed as to the presence of Hon. J. Bryan Grimes here in the law school. Our informant was mistaken in the name. The gentleman is Mr. William Grimes.

The fraternities decided last night to give an afternoon german on Friday, February 21, to the Junior and Senior classes. A detailed account will be given next week.

Dr. J. G. de R. Hamilton, nobly assisted by the members of the class in History 12, succeeded last Friday, after a long and dangerous fight, in annihilating a large rat that was behaving in an unseemly manner.

The Carolina debaters have chosen the negative side of the question submitted by Virginia. The query is "Resolved, That National Banks be permitted to issue notes subject to taxation and government regulation, on their general assets." Those who intend to enter the contest should notify Mr. J. W. Umstead, Jr., at an early date.

Hare and Hounds.

The first hare and hound run was held last Saturday afternoon, some two dozen hounds following Bridgers and Jordan. The trail was about one and three quarter miles, from the Gym to the Meeting of the Waters and back around the cemetery. The time was not particularly fast, this being the first run. The actual time being as follows: Davis 10.05; Ruffin 10.05 and 2-5; Bridgers 10.22; Williams 10.24; Webb 10.32; Klonts 11.00

The next run will be Saturday at 4.30 prompt and will be about two miles. Davis and Ruffin will be the hounds.
