Yackety Yack News.

The editors and business managers of The Yackety Yack are doing everything in their power to make the annual a success and have it ready for delivery by the first of May. The book this year will be dedicated to the memory of Romy Story who was loved and admired by all who knew him. A sketch of his life and athletic record will be given.

A half tone cut of every member of the faculty; a cut of each member of the graduating class (academic and professional) with a half page write up of each man; cuts of the classes, literary societies, fraternities, clubs, and organizations of every kind. Varsity and scrub football, baseball, tennis, and track teams, and varsity and scrub debating teams, are some of the attractive features of the Yackety Yack, which will be thoroughly representative of University life.

The book will consist of about three hundred and fifty pages and handsomely bound. It is the best souvenir of the University that can be bought.

The price of the book is two dollars per copy. One half of this is paid by signing a dollar of the damage fee, the balance on delivery.

See Matthews or Muse as soon as possible and place your order. Only the number of copies subscribed for will be published. These must be ordered within the next ten days.
