THE SOPHOMORE BANQUET.

unity. Mr. Fentress used as his subject, "The Ideal Sophomore," and however ideal his subject, the talk was exceedingly practical and good. Mr. Guion talked of the ties that should bind and do bind the men of a class together as the ties that bind the men of a State. Mr. Robinson gave an endless chain of jokes which were well received as such. Improptus were made by Messrs. Wolfe, Nixon, Joyner, Freeman, Nash T. P. and S. S., Kramer, Segraves, and others, after which the banquet came to an end in the "wee small hours" of Saturday morning.

The First Student.

The New Hanover County Club was entertained Wednesday night by Professor Noble at an informal but sumptuous supper in honor of the one hundred and thirteenth anniversary of the arrival here of the University's first student—Hinton James, of Wilmington—who entered February 12th, 1795. Besides the members of the club there were present Dr. Kemp Plummer Battle, the inspiration of much historical work throughout the State; Dr. J. G. deRoulhac Hamilton, the late principal of the Wilmington High School; Prof. W. S. Bernard who is a graduate of the Wilmington public schools, and Mr. Hand James, great grandson of Hinton James. During the talks that were made, the fact was brought to light that since the first registration here there have been 400 men from New Hanover county, 360 of whom were from Wilmington. The talks made by Professor Noble, Dr. Battle, Dr. Hamilton, Professor Bernard and others were mainly of Hinton James—his life here and after his graduation—and the University of that day as compared with the University as it is to-day.

Large, fresh oysters received every day at Pickard & Stroud's Cafe.
