Mr. K. C. Sidbury, '07, has returned to college to take law.

Mr. W. S. Dickson has recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

Civil Moot Court will be held tonight at 7:30 in Law Building.

Mr. R. M. Robinson returned last week from a visit to Goldsboro.

Prof. Collier Cobb spent Saturday of last week in Washington, D. C.

Prof. Noble returned Saturday from a meeting of school superintendents held in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greenfield, of Cambridge, Mass., spent Friday and Saturday here visiting Mr. Eaton.

Mr. H. E. Stacy and Mr. D. B. Bryan made the best speeches Saturday night in the Di and Phi respectively.

The Guilford County Club meets in the Y. M. C. A. Building Thursday night at 7:30. Dr. C. L. Raper will deliver an address.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave a most enjoyable banquet Friday night. Mr. F. B. Stem acted as toastmaster. Interesting and helpful talks were made by Prof. Bernard, Dr. Dolly, Dr. Bruner, Mr. Hickerson, Mr. Grimes, Mr. Stewart and Mr. Misenheimer.

At the meeting of the Geological Seminary Tuesday night Mr. W. E. Hearn, the soil expert, gave an interesting account of the Aims and Methods of the U. S. Bureau of Soils. A number of men in this bureau have received their training at the University of North Carolina.

Father Price Here.

Reverend Father Price, head of the Catholic Orphanage at Nazareth, N. C., was here Saturday and Sunday. He conducted services at the Law Building Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and night. His explanation and defence of the ceremonies and doctrines of the Catholic Church were clear and forceful. A number of the students were much interested, some of them never having heard a Catholic priest before. Father Price will very probably be here again this spring.

Y. M. C. A. Installation and Banquet.

At the Tuesday night meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. F. B. Rankin made a talk on the work of the Y. M. C. A., the retiring president Mr. J. A. Fore, made his annual report, and the new officers, Messrs. F. P. Graham, H. P. Osborne,

W. P. Grier, and D. B. Teague were installed.

Following this meeting a banquet was tendered the new officers by the cabinet and Bible study leaders. An enjoyable menu was served and speeches were made galore. Mr. F. B. Rankin was toastmaster and kept things going with spirit. Dr. C. Alphonso Smith made a very polished, entertaining and instructive talk on the part played by the Y. M. C. A. in changing men from individual, self-centered, into helpful, sympathetic beings. Dr. L. R. Wilson made a very helpful talk advising more business-like methods in the management of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. J. A. Fore told of the Asheville Conference and the Mt. Mitchell climb. The speechmaking then went the rounds of the table and was closed with a song and a yell.

Dr. Lilly Coming.

Rev. D. Clay Lilly of Winston-Salem will be here March 8th, 9th, and 10th to conduct a missionary institute. Dr. Lilly is a young man not quite forty, yet his power as a speaker is such that some one has volunteered to pay his salary and expenses for three years that he may travel over the South and present the Laymen's Missionary Movement. His subjects are as follows: "Money and the Kingdom," Sunday, 11 A. M., at the Presbyterian Church; "A Vision of Service," Sunday, 7:30 P. M., in Gerard Hall; "Men and Missions," Monday, 8:30 P. M., Pickard's Hotel dining room; "The Heart of Things," Tuesday, 7:30 P. M., Gerard Hall.

A Runaway Horse.

Monday evening's calm was broken by the wild capers of a horse loose on the campus. Whether the horse imagined that he was a Dan Patch, cheered on by the expectant throng, whether he thought that he was dragging a Hector about the walls of Troy, or whether he thought a tin can was dangling from his tail, he didn't stop to explain, but merely flew on in his mad career not to be balked even by the menacing and dusky form of Henry. Up and down the campus, now contemptuously ploughing up the paths hallowed by the tread of the great, now wildly circling the athletic field at a clip that would put the Yannigans to shame, he sped on until having covered all the points of this mundane sphere he mounted up like Pegasus of old and made his winged way to the skies.
