

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. Hall Worth, '05, of Ashboro, was here last week.

Mr. Paul Schenck, of Greensboro, spent a few days on the Hill last week.

Presiding Elder J. B. Hurley, of Durham, preached two excellent sermons at the Methodist church Sunday.

Mr. N. S. Plummer was released Monday from the infirmary, where he had been confined with the mumps.

Mr. Tom Sutton, '07, who is in the real estate business at Statesville, was on the Hill Tuesday and Wednesday.

The members of the Dramatic Club returned to the Hill Wednesday night. They say that Eastern North Carolina is "all to the good."

Mr. W. E. Lindsay, the new postmaster, assumed charge of Uncle Sam's postal business here Monday morning. He will be assisted by Mr. W. H. Parker.

Mr. Wade Stockard, of Greensboro, will be at Central Hotel Monday night and Tuesday for the purpose of fitting the clothing ordered by the students from T. A. Walker and Co.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Modern Literature Club held Thursday night Prof. E. K. Graham presented a paper on "Lords and Lovers", a book of plays by Olive Tilford Dargen."

The male population of Chapel Hill was invited by the Y. M. C. A. to attend an informal spread at Pickard's Hotel Monday night. Dr. D. Clay Lilly was present and made a talk on missions.

At a meeting of the Dramatic Club held in The Tar Heel office Tuesday night Mr. Potter was extended a vote of thanks for his faithful work in preparing "The Rivals" for the stage. The members all felt that the success of the play was due largely to the efforts of Mr. Potter and were enthusiastic in their praise of him.

The Economics Society.

The Economics Society met in the Alumni building Monday night to discuss the query that we are to debate with Virginia. Messrs. J. T. Johnston and J. W. Hester, our representatives against Virginia, were present and led the discussion. The query discussed was Resolved, that national banks be allowed to issue notes on their general assets subject to tax and supervision by the government. Messrs. Hester and Johnston championed the negative, while Messrs. Osborne and Lewis, as the Virginia scrubs, took up for the affirmative. The meeting was very lively and interesting, as several members of the club joined in the discussion. Dr. Raper, in particular, showed his interest in the question by his many valuable suggestions and criticisms.

Ross Crane Coming.

Ross Crane, the great cartoonist, and his company—"canvases and crayons, modeling-board and clay, and the piano, to say nothing of the piano-stool"—will appear in Gerrard Hall Friday, March 13, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. This artist comes well recommended, and it is said that he is equal to Alton Packard, who makes such a hit every time he comes to Chapel Hill. Secretary Rankin is noted in these parts as one who knows how to secure entertainments that entertain, and it is certain that in this instance he has not failed. Tickets may be secured at Eubanks's Drug Store. The prices are 35 and 50 cents.

Fiddlers' Convention.

"Ye Olde Tyme" Fiddlers' Convention will be held at the Canada School building Thursday and Friday nights of this week. A list of about twenty-five contestants has been published, and still others are expected to enter. Among the contestants are Mr. J. T. Benbow, of the medical department, Mr. J. B. Whittington, of the pharmacy department, both of whom will play the banjo, and Mr. Moore, who will do a dancing stunt.

Prizes of $5, $2, and $1 will be awarded to the three best players, on each the fiddle and the banjo, and $2 will be given to the best dancer.

Part of the proceeds will be given to the school. The prices are 25, 50, and 75 cents. Seats are on sale at Eubanks's Drug Store and the Athletic Store.

Right Places For College Men

It is easy for the college man to get a job but not so easy to find the right place, the work that he is suited to, and the place that will lead to some sure advancement. That is where our service helps. We have placed thousands of college men who have made good. It is as much our work to find the best openings as it is to recommend good men. We can interest any young man open for an office, sales, technical or teaching position. Write to-day and let us tell you about positions open for college men this Spring.
