CAROLINA WINS THE SECOND

TAKES IT FROM LAFAYETTE BY SCORE OF 3 TO 0.

"Reddy" Stewart Does the Twirling for Carolina and Shows up Well.

In a slow, though well-played game, the Varsity goose-egged Lafayette to the tune of three to nothing. "Red" Stewart did the trick, and though at times a little wild, he pitched winning ball. Only one hit was made off of his delivery, and Lafayette's heavy hitting team was at his mercy.

Hobbs and Montgomery were the particular stars for Carolina. The former caught a remarkable game, and his throwing was splendid. Fountain got three hits out of four times up, and played his position in good style.

1st inning: James fanned. Hobbs walked. Hamilton sacrificed. Hobbs went to third on a wild pitch. Montgomery drew a pass also. Fountain hit safe, scoring Hobbs. Fullenwider fanned. 1 run.

Kelley struck out. Schneider got a bad one in the ribs. Swank flew out to center. Schneider got caught trying to purloin second.

2nd inning: Stewart fanned. Stephens quit via second-first. Graham walked, and went to second on a passed ball. James walked too. Hobbs pocketed the ball in the left garden.

Long quit via pitcher-first. Peters hit an easy one in front of the plate. Kohler couldn't see the ball.

3rd inning: Hamilton knocked a swift one to Peters, who throws him out to Guthrie. Montgomery rode on the Big 4, and purloined second. Fountain got an infield hit. Fullenwider got safe on Conover missing his third strike. Conover throws wild to third, Montgomery and Fountain scoring. 2 runs.

McCaa got safe on an error. Guthrie hit to James who caught McCaa at second. Conover sacrificed. Kelley flew out to left.

4th inning: Stephen, Graham and James struck out.

Schneider stopped via third-first. Swank walked, but was caught trying to steal. Long sent an easy one to Stewart.

5th inning: Hobbs hit to Schneider who made a nice stop, and threw him out. Hamilton got out via pitcher-first. Montgomery struck out.

Peters got a bad lick on the leg. Kohler had sand in his eyes. So did McCaa. Guthrie was easy via pitcher-first.

6th inning: Fountain got another hit. Fullenwider and Stewart sacrificed. Hackney who succeeded Stephens flew out to left.

Conover got a nice single in right

GYM N. C.'S GIVEN TO FOUR

AN INTERESTING CONTEST IN THE GYMNASIUM.

The Giving of Sweaters Has Stimulated Interest in Gym Work.

The annual contest for gymnasium N. C.'s took place Saturday afternoon at the Bynum Gymnasium. The men who entered the contest and who had been training all the spring were in good condition and the exhibition they gave was interesting. To get the jerseys, the contestants had to do a number of stunts, comprising figures on the parallel bars, the horizontal bar, the swing rings, the horse, and on the mats. There were seven contestants, and the jerseys were awarded to the following men, V. W. Osborne, L. C. Kerr, C. C. Brown, and S. S. Nash, Jr. Osborne was especially recommended by the committee as the best all round gymnast, and Kerr as a very close second. The contest was viewed from the track above by a large number of spectators. The judges were, Drs. C. S. Mangum, C. H. Herty, and C. A. Smith.

These contests for the jerseys have done a great deal of good in being an incentive for harder work in the gymnasium. With a chance for an N. C. in view, one does not have to work in an impersonal and uninteresting manner, but he has something to aim at, something that puts life and interest into his work.

Seniors Defeat Meds.

The most interesting class game that has been played this spring was that Saturday afternoon, when the Seniors defeated the Meds by the score of 11 to 4. During the first part of the game the Meds played all around the Seniors and it looked like a walk-over. They batted well and did good work in the field, while the Seniors couldn't hit and played poorly in the field. The tide, however, was turned in the sixth. The Doctors went to pieces and the Seniors got together and sent five men across the rubber before the side was retired. The Meds fought hard—both those in the game and those on the side lines—and did their utmost to recover the game, but it was too late. The Seniors had it "cinched."

Sumner pitched exceptionally well for the Meds until the fatal sixth. Matthews' work was poor at the beginning, but he gradually improved until toward the last, when he did some pretty stunts.

Sophs. Victorious.

In a ten-inning game Tuesday the Sophs defeated the Freshmen by a score of 4 to 1. The Freshmen started the scoring in the first, the Sophs got one in the fifth, and added three in the ninth. Thomas and Cocke did the battery work for the Freshmen, and Sloan and Pinix for the Sophs.

RETURN OF THE PRESIDENT

HE REACHES THE HILL SATURDAY MORNING.

A Large Crowd of Students March to His Home to Welcome Him.

Dr. Venable returned Saturday morning from his voyage to Italy, upon which he had been gone about six weeks. As soon as he arrived on the Hill, some of his admirers in the student body set the old college bell to ringing and kept it ringing for an hour.

At night the societies adjourned and most of the members marched in a body, headed by the band and lighted by torches, to Dr. Venable's home, there to welcome him back to "God's country" with some of the old college yells. He responded by making a short talk, in which he expressed his delight at being once more on the Hill, and his appreciation of the rousing welcome. In the course of his remarks he took occasion to congratulate the students upon their priceless heritage of American citizenship, saying that his voyage had made him notice more forcibly than ever the contrast between the old country and the new.

Dr. Venable spent the major part of his time upon the water, inasmuch as he went mainly for the benefit to be derived from a sea voyage. He spent twelve days in Naples and bothered little about sight-seeing, for, as he said, he just "loafed," so that he might become thoroughly rested.

Guilford and Virginia.

No more games will be played on the Hill until April 10, but meanwhile Carolina will face at Greensboro two teams that have always made her get up and hustle. They are Guilford and Virginia—the former Saturday, April 4, the latter Monday, April 6. An excursion will be run on the sixth, leaving Chapel Hill at 8:10, and as many students as can do so are urged to attend and help at the rooting stunt.

Georgia Debate Postponed.

The Georgia debate has been postponed, and will probably be held April 10, provided Mr. O. R. Rand, who is sick with the mumps, is sufficiently recovered to participate.

Virginia Carolina Debate.

Messrs. J. W. Hester and J. T. Johnston leave this morning for Richmond to meet the debaters from the University of Virginia tomorrow night on the question as to whether national banks should be allowed to issue notes on their general assets. These gentlemen have worked hard on the question and they will unquestionably give the Virginians a run for their money. They were accompanied by Mr. T. L. Simmons, as "Coach."

CAROLINA DEFEATS CORNELL

WINS FROM NEW YORKERS BY SCORE OF 5 TO 2.

An Interesting Game—Fullenwider Does Good Pitching, Fanning Eleven Men.

Carolina defeated Cornell here yesterday afternoon by the score of 5 to 2. The game was interesting from beginning to end and the teams did good work both at the stick and in the field. The Cornell men were rather vociferous in their kicks, claiming that Umpire Whitaker did not give them a square deal.

Carolina started the scoring in the second inning, when by a succession of pretty hits they landed three men across the rubber. Again in the sixth and in the eighth they scored. Cornell scored her first run in the fourth and her second in the ninth when Lally, the cather, knocked a clean home run.

Fullenwider pitched a beautiful game, causing eleven men to wonder at the gyrations of the ball. Caldwell did good work for the visitors and, except in the second inning, kept the hits scattered.

Score by innings:

Cornell	0	0	1
Carolina	0	3	0

Batteries: Caldwell and Lally, Fullenwider and Hobbs.

The Prize Reading Contest.

The Prize Reading Contest by the students in Public Speaking announced in last week's Tar Heel will probably be held during the Easter dances. The contestants have been chosen and will be announced shortly.

Mr. Potter's success with "The Rivals" here February 20 is sufficient to prove that any entertainment he prepares for the stage is well worth hearing. The idea of having such a contest is new at this institution, but it is certain that with Mr. Potter behind it the show can but be a success. The following clipping is taken from the paper at Barre, Vermont at which place Mr. Potter taught last year:

"Mr. Potter showed in his recent recital that he is a reader and impersonator of the highest rank. In his production of "The Rivals," the excellent work done by the entire cast proved that as a dramatic coach he is unsurpassed. Last night when his pupils were presented in a Prize Reading Contest the public was convinced that whenever his name appears upon a program you may know the entertainment will be worth the price."—Vermont Watchman and Barre Times.

More Moving Pictures.

The moving picture show has come to town again, this time with an entirely new set of films. The show will be held in the Y. M. C. A. chapel, the price is ten cents, and large crowds are expected.
