

LOCAL NOTES.

The admission to the Virginia game will be 50 cents.

These be exciting times. The bears have been to town again.

Greensboro will be the Mecca for the North Carolina fans next Monday.

In the annual Sophomore debate in the Phi hall, held Friday night, Mr. S. F. Teague carried off the prize.

Messrs. Monroe Gaddy and W. P. Grier attended the Y. M. C. A. convention held at Columbia, S. C., last week.

Mr. W. D. Weatherford, International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will speak in the Chapel Sunday night at 7:30.

Mr. F. B. Rankin made a very forceful talk before the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night. His subject was, "The Power of a Great Ideal".

The Guilford County Club will meet next Friday night in the Y. M. C. A. building, and will be addressed by Dr. K. P. Battle.

The Varsity-scrub contest for the Virginia debate was held in Gerrard Hall Monday night. Messrs. Lewis and Osborne were the scrubs.

The William and Mary game booked for Tuesday was cancelled. A. and M. cancelled her game with the Virginians and they could not afford to come for the Carolina game alone.

The schedules have been changed on the Southern so that trains now arrive at 11:50 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. and leave at 9:15 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. The mails close at 8:30 A. M. and 3:15 P. M.

Mr. Addison Lambeth took charge of Pickard's Hotel yesterday. The name has been changed to the University Inn. The hotel will be closed for repairs till the latter part of the month.

Sigma Upsilon Meeting.

Mr. W. E. Yelverton left Monday morning for Ashland, Va., to represent the Odd Number Club at the meeting of the General Council of Sigma Upsilon, held March 30, 31-April 1. This organization was formed last year to promote creative literary work in the South and this is the first meeting of the General Council.

Mr. Yelverton will stop in Richmond on his return to attend the Virginia-Carolina debate, and will return to the Hill Saturday.

Track Stunts

The first try out against time Saturday resulted in the following records: 100 yard dash, Williams, D., 10-3; Pinnix, 11; Phillips, 11-1; T. Rutzler, 11-2. 220 yard dash, T. Rutzler, 24-2; Phillips, 24-3; Eames, 26. One fourth mile, Williams, D., 59. One half mile, Bridgers, 2:15. One mile, Ferguson, 5:19-2. On the light jump, Phillips went 5.1, Williams 5-0. In the broad jump, Williams went about 19 feet, Phillips about 18 1-2. No time was taken on the hurdles, and no measurements made on the weights. There will be a regular try out every Saturday afternoon at 4:30. It helps the fellows lots to see a big crowd hanging around, so come out and learn who's doing what, how much of it, and how long it takes. To my mind, Varsity Track Team means lots more than class baseball P

The Excursion.

An excursion train will be run to Greensboro next Monday for the Virginia game. The train is run for the benefit of the Chapel Hill Fire Company, and the fare for the round trip is $1.50. The time of leaving is 8:10 a. m.

It is desired that as many students as possible attend and cheer the Carolina men on to victory. The game will unquestionably be worth seeing, and our players will feel more confident if they can hear from the side lines some rousing yells.

Carolina 3, Randolph Macon 1.

The game Friday was devoid of any special features, when Carolina defeated Randolph-Macon by the score of 3 to 1.

The Varsity played a good fielding game, but the stick work was decidedly poor. Fullenwider was on the firing line, and held the Virginians to two hits. Hobbs and Montgomery worked like a well-oiled machine. Hamilton played a steady game at the initial sack. For the visitors, Pritchard, short-stop, and Lancaster, third, played the best game. Drewry pitched a good game, but his support was not the best.

Randolph-Macon made their only score in the ninth inning after two men were out. Carolina scored in the second and eighth.

Batteries—Fullenwider and Hobbs; Drewry and Newman.

Summary—1st. base on balls off Fullenwider 2; off Drewry 2. Left on bases—Carolina 5; Randolph-Macon 1. 1st. base on errors—James (2), Fullenwider (2), Graham, Fountain and Beale. Struck out by Fullenwider 5; by Drewry 1. Double plays—Baldwin to Beale, Hite to Newman; Fullenwider to Montgomery to Hamilton. Stolen bases—Fullenwider (2), James, Hamilton, Graham. Sacrifice hits—Hobbs and Stewart. Passed balls—Newman 1; Hobbs 1. Time of game 1:35. Umpire Whitaker.

Baseball Hits.

King Cole still has the mumps.

That double in the R. M. game was a beauty.

Hackney says little but he saws wood and is showing up well.

Did you ever see a bunch get around faster than our infielders?

Frank continues to keep his breeches rolled up and continues to get his base.

Reddy's twirling is steadily improving. The Lafayette men couldn't find him at all.

That error of Monty's in the R. M. game did no one any real harm and made the visitors feel good.

Fully did the cat and mouse stunt with that R. M. right fielder. The youngster was afraid to take his foot off first base.

Hobbs' ability to throw to second is a nine days' wonder. The Lafayette men seemed dazed. Seven tried and seven failed.

"Underfoot," "Spigot," "Bill," "Phantom," sometimes known as George Fountain, did himself proud in the second Lafayette game when it came to batting.
