

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. J. B. Coghill returned Tuesday from a visit to Rocky Mount.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble left Tuesday for Harnett county to deliver an address.

The Sophomores defeated the Juniors yesterday afternoon by the score of 13 to 8.

Mr. W. E. Yelverton returned Saturday from a trip to Ashland and Richmond, Va.

Dr. Venable attended a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees in Raleigh Tuesday.

Rev. Wm. Gordon, '03, who is now stationed at Williamston, preached two excellent sermons at the Episcopal church Sunday.

Mr. D. Phillips went to Charlotte Thursday afternoon to make the final arrangements before the Yackety Yack should be put to press. From Charlotte he went to Greensboro to attend the games.

"Bull" Thompson, known throughout the South as one of the best baseball players Carolina ever produced, has signed up for the coming season with Wilson, Eastern Carolina League. Wilson is to be congratulated.

The Moving Pictures Move.

Mr. J. A. Pothyress of Henderson has been on the Hill a week with his moving picture show. He gave his final performance here last night, much to the regret of the throngs that nightly spent their dimes. The pictures shown this time were even better than those shown when Mr. Pothyress was here before. The scenes were changed every night, and no one has been heard to complain of monotony.

The show was a success in every particular. Among the scenes "Ali Babba and the Forty Thieves" and "Parsifal"—with explanatory comments by Mr. Rankin—were probably the best, though long to be remembered are some of the comic pictures, such as "The Phlegmatic Old Gentleman," "Please Help the Blind," and "The Automobile Chase."

It is to be hoped that Mr. Pothyress will come again.

Faculty vs. Seniors.

In a game Saturday afternoon characterized by multitudinous errors, a picked-up team of Seniors licked a picked-up team of the Faculty by a score of 9 to 6. The game was interesting, and it was tit for tat as to who would win the crown of victory. However, along toward the sixth the Seniors got the lead and kept it till the end of the game.

Maj. Willis and Dr. Lawson pitched for the Faculty, and Freshman Oliver and Dr. Royster did the catching stunt. Matthews and Rhyn pitched for the Seniors and Lewis, of the Law class, caught.

Mr. "Jim" Taylor umpired, and many of his decisions may be considered as features of the game.

Hurrah for Carolina.

In celebration of the victory over Virginia Monday, an enthusiastic mass meeting was held in the chapel Tuesday night. Several members of the faculty were present and made good and lively talks. Mr. Vermont, in particular, was successful in bringing down the house by his stirring enthusiasm. Drs. Smith, Royster and Herty also succeeded in making hits. As the score of 2 to 1 also applied to Carolina's victory over Virginia in the debate at Richmond on Friday night, Carolina's representatives, Messrs. Hester and Johnston were called on for speeches. They both responded in good spirit. The meeting broke up with yells, and headed by the band the students proceeded to take in the town with a torchlight procession.

THE DEBATE.

says further, "Under the rules of the contest, the judges—Mr. John M. Miller, Jr., vice-president of the First National Bank of Richmond; Dr. H. R. McIlwaine, Jr., State Librarian; and Prof. W. L. Foushee of Richmond College, were required to write and seal their verdict and pass it over to the presiding officer. The envelopes were delivered to the Mayor. Tearing off the flap, the Mayor announced that the first vote was in favor of the affirmative, which was Virginia. The announcement was greeted with applause. The second vote was announced in favor of the negative, North Carolina. There was more applause. From all parts of the hall there was a concerted craning of necks. The third envelope was quickly opened and found to be in favor of the negative also. This announcement was immediately cheered by everybody in the auditorium."

The Carolina representatives are loud in their praises of Virginia hospitality. They report fine treatment throughout their stay in the Virginia capital.

Juniors 11, Seniors 10.

In an intensely interesting game Thursday afternoon the Senior colors were trailed in the dust by the Juniors—and 11 to 10 tells the tale. At first it seemed that the Seniors were doomed hopelessly, but soon they bobbed up serenely and passed the Juniors. They kept this lead until the last half of the ninth, and when the first Junior up died at first, Senior money looked better than ever. But three successive errors on the part of the Seniors settled the thing, and "Si" Hodge and his co-cheeres were happy.

Captain Matthews and Ruffin for the Seniors and Captain Gaddy and Misenheimer for the Juniors did the twirling and receiving. Joe Nixon umpired.

Historical Society.

The North Carolina Historical Society held its April meeting Tuesday night. Dr. William K. Boyd, Professor of History in Trinity College, was the guest of the society and read a most interesting and entertaining sketch on Dr. Nathan Lord, for many years president of Dartmouth College, an ardent pro-slavery man and secessionist who was forced to resign in 1863 on account of his opinions. It is to be hoped that Dr. Boyd will again be present at some future meeting of the society.
