THE GAME.

Virginians. Carolina had shown up exceptionally well in the Cornell game, and until the Guilford game the hopes of the North State fans ran high. But when Carolina went down to the tune of 4 to 0 many lost hope—hence the big odds. Not so with the students. The majority felt confident of victory, though Virginia's run in the first and her good chance in the fifth caused a mighty sinking of hearts.

The Gate City had on its holiday attire and the inhabitants turned out to see the game and to give the students a good time. And the G. F. and Normal girls—"God bless 'em," said many a Carolina boy—went to see the game and caused the grand-stand to become a beauty show of the first order, for White and Blue and a pretty girl make a wonderful combination.

Long before Umpire Holt called "Play!" the grand-stand and bleachers were filled to overflowing and the crowd began crowding along the side lines and around the fence in the outfield.

At three thirty the Carolina players trotted on the field, the umpire gave the signal, and the fight was on.

Honaker, first man up for Virginia, gets a free pass, is sacrificed to second, and scores on Hoff's single. Odds go up to two to one. James for Carolina flies out, Monty walks, Hobbs flies out to left, Reddy fans.

In the second Virginia gets a man to third, but cannot score. Fountain flies out to short, Ham singles to center, steals second. Fully fans. Cole knocks a long fly to center, who muffs, and Ham scores. Great excitement.

In the third Virginia is retired in one, two, three order. James and Monty get free passes and are sacrificed to second and third by Hobbs. Reddy singles to right and James scores. The crowd goes wild.

The fourth is uneventful, but the fifth is not. Virginia gets three men on bases with one man out. Hoff knocks a swift one to Ham, who throws the runner out at home. Hume fans. And the mighty crowd yells itself hoarse and sinks back with a sigh.

After this no player on either side reached third.

SWEATERS FOR TENNIS MEN.

The matter of establishing the office of Athletic Publicity Agent was taken up and after some discussion it was decided unanimously to establish such an office. It shall be the duty of the person elected to this office to bring before the prep. school athletes of the State the advantages of the University from an athletic point of view. Mr. W. P. Jacocks was nominated for the place, but he stated that, owing to the press of other duties, it would be impossible for him to serve. It was felt that the Association could not be too careful in the choice of this officer, and the election was postponed until the following Wednesday night.

Mr. Horton representing Whiting Bros. will be here again with one of the swellest lines ever shown in Chapel Hill. He will have a swell line of Stetson Hats, in both straw and soft styles. His tailoring is as good as any in the country. Klee & Co., of New York, whom he represents, is one of the best tailoring establishments in the country. He will also have a swell line of gent's furnishings. Save your orders for him!
