

LOCAL NOTES.

Dr. C. A. Smith is spending a few days in Greensboro.

Prof. E. K. Graham spent Easter at his home in Charlotte.

Miss Mary Morrison, of Charlotte, is visiting Miss May Hume.

Mr. J. T. McAden, '07, has been spending a few days on the Hill.

Mr. Paul Schenck, of Greensboro, was a visitor on the Hill last week.

Mr. "Bull" Thompson came over from Raleigh to witness the Wake Forest Carolina game.

The Fresh-Soph debate, which was scheduled for tomorrow night, has been postponed one week.

Mr. W. H. Royster, '07, who is taking advanced work in Greek at Johns Hopkins University, was here last week.

The next issue of The Tar Heel will be the last that will appear until after Commencement, when a double issue will be published.

Prof. W. S. Bernard, of the University, has been invited to deliver the commencement address at the closing of the graded schools of Lenoir, the latter part of May.

Prof. M. H. Stacy, of the department of mathematics, will go to Harnett county in a few days to speak at the closing of one of the public high schools of that county.

Dr. Chas. H. Herty has been appointed temporary dean of the Department of Applied Sciences in the University, to serve until a permanent appointment is made by the board of trustees. The deanship was made vacant by the death of Prof. J. W. Gore.

Dr Eben Alexander, dean of the University, has gone to Nashville to attend the annual convention of the Association of Classical Studies of the Middle West and South. He is one of the principal speakers of the convention, and his subject will be "Classical Training."

The visiting committee appointed annually by the governor of the State to inspect the University was here last week. The committee this year consists of Messrs. R. T. Gray, of Raleigh, and R. T. Gilliam, of Tarboro, and Prof. J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College.

Sunday afternoon, May 17, there will be held in the University chapel memorial exercises in honor of the late Mrs. Spencer whose death occurred a few weeks ago in Cambridge, Mass. Mr. James H. Southgate, of Durham, will be the principle speaker. There will also be addresses by Dr. K. P. Battle, Dr. H. L. Philips, and Prof. W. C. Smith.

Some Explanations.

In a meeting of the Student Body Monday night, Mr. Stacy used as evidence a remark of mine. On Monday morning Mr. Stacy engaged me in what purported to be a friendly conversation, in the course of which, to the best of my memory, I said that I had heard that two fraternity men looked on at the blacking. Mr. Stacy, I am told, quoted me as making the statement on my own authority. That I was misunderstood was very probably my fault. I know that I did not make it clear that I was repeating rumor and not making a statement. If I had known that my remarks would be used for evidence, I would have been more careful.

But I wish that it be distinctly understood that I do not state that two fraternity men looked on. The blacking crowd had done its work and gone before I woke up and I know nothing about it.

KEMP D. BATTLE.

At a meeting of the Student Body last Monday night some statements of mine were used against Mr. N. V. Stockton. I am not exactly sure as to the statements I made about the blacking in question. If I made the statement that Mr. N. V. Stockton saw the blacking I was mistaken. I am sure Mr. Stockton did not see the blacking, for he and myself had waked up in time to see the blacked freshmen in the bath room, after the hazers had left the Carr Building. The evidence brought against Mr. Stockton showed that he had broken his pledge, of which he is not guilty.

GEO. BAUCOM.

MR. EDITOR:—In a meeting of the student body last Monday night I made the following statement: "Mr. Joe A. Parker said that Mr. Avery said that he (Avery) saw a freshman blacked." Now, Mr. Avery says that he has been misrepresented. He says that he intended to say, and thought he did say that he saw a blacked freshman. There seems to be a misunderstanding. But considering Mr. Avery's latter statement I will say that if I made a wrong impression it was unintentional. I, having talked with Mr. Avery, believe that I got the wrong impression and desire to correct said wrong impression.

Prize Reading Contest.

The date for the Prize Reading Contest has been announced as Monday, May 4th. Mr Potter and his freshmen are working hard, and those who saw "The Rivals" can but admit that anything Mr. Potter prepares for the stage is worth seeing. The program in full will be announced next week.

The Games That Were Not.

Unless Manager Gray is a very optimistic man, he must be having the blues these days, for two of his important games could not be played on account of rain. The Wake Forest boys came Thursday morning and left Thursday afternoon, sad in that they could not get a whack at Carolina with what they claim is the best team they have had in years. And at Charlotte the Davidson game scheduled for Saturday—but list to the Charlotte Observer.

"By far the most thrilling game of baseball never played on the Charlotte diamond was yesterday's scheduled contest between Carolina and Davidson. Not a runner on either side crossed the home plate for a coveted score. Not a batsman of the eighteen husky sluggers reached first or so much as fouled a ball. Not an error was recorded in the scorer's fateful book. Not a pitcher tossed a ball which failed to cut the plate at home. 'Nobody walked,' nobody hit, nobody caught, nobody ran. And the score as between the teams, was nothing to nothing. Not 0 to 0, but nothing to nothing, plain, simple and unalloyed—the nothingness of that which never had a chance for existence.

"The weather must take the blame. No knocking of the pitcher will suffice. It was not a first baseman's error, nor yet a short stop's fumble, nor a fielder's tardy throw which did the work. Rain did it. A miserable, drizzling, steady, unceasing, merciless, determined, malignant rain it was. Spite of the hopes of ball-thirsty fans, spite of the anxiety of piteous sighs heaved from many score feminine bosoms, heedless of ten thousand skyward glances from a thousand pairs of eyes, it came down, down, down, while hopes faded, dwindled, died away."
