DEATH OF W. S. DAVIDSON

Mr. William S. Davidson, who for a year and a half was a devoted member of the class of 1911 and an earnest student, died in Asheville on Tuesday, May the twenty-fifth. Mr. Davidson, a graduate of Oak Ridge Institute, entered the University with the present Sophomore class in September of 1907. Throughout the session and during the first half of his Sophomore year he was a hard student. Being somewhat reserved, he was not a man to mingle promiscuously with strangers; but his splendid personal appearance, his congenial manner, his sincerity, and earnestness of purpose gained for him many close friends.

During the Christmas holidays he contracted a severe case of the grippe, which rapidly developed into tuberculosis, although he was seemingly not a fit subject for the disease. This necessitated his withdrawal from the University in early February. He soon went to Asheville in the hope of regaining his health. But he steadily grew worse until all hopes of his recovery were lost.

It was with great regret that the faculty and students received the news of his death. From Asheville his remains were taken for interment to the home of his grandmother in Taylorsville.

Resolutions of Respect

The class of 1911 of the University, as an expression of its grief over the loss of W. S. Davidson, Taylorsville, N. C. for one year and a half one of its most loyal members, has adopted the following resolutions:

First, That in the death of W. S. Davidson, the class has lost one of its most devoted members, and the University a worthy student.

Second, That we mourn with his family over our mutual loss.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, to the Mountain Scout, to The Tar Heel, and to the state papers.

Faculty vs Seniors

The faculty-senior game was played Monday afternoon, a red hot game on a white hot diamond. Never did the sun shine more fiercely or grimy baseball players appear grimmer. True the seniors were the grimmest, and Henderson of the faculty team slid to second. He got more dirt than the next one—for he sat down in it. When he arose amid a cloud of dust, and his customary six inches of collar he was given great applause. From then neither side created much of a sensation.

The score was five to two in favor of the seniors. To say that the seniors earned these runs would be to be unkindful of the truth; but the faculty filched theirs. Two of the faculty team stole home. The seniors got their runs on the poor fielding of the faculty infield, which got some assistance from Howell in the outfield.

Lawson the faculty pitcher, when so minded, threw balls which no one saw—not even his catcher. He received poor support, as was to be expected from an unpractised team, yet the game as a whole, was an interesting one. Fast plays were pulled off by both sides, and everybody worked hard to win. "Tommy" Wilson for the faculty, hit the ball hard. The senior Capt. Allen, got two hard drives. The rooters deserve most credit, for it was very hot. The strongest circumstance of the game was that it was impossible to borrow a chew of tobacco from any member of one of the teams.

A Card of Thanks

We wish to express our heart felt thanks to the many friends who came to our assistance upon the occasion of the fire which destroyed our chapter house Wednesday afternoon. This assistance enabled us to save much from loss which otherwise must have gone, and the memory of it, of the spirit which prompted it, and of the warm-hearted sympathy which has been extended by all, mitigates to a great extent our sense of loss.

Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Three Requirements For All Students

You need reliable, original and complete material for written or spoken work. You also need books and magazines. And later a summer or permanent position, which you should plan for now, before all the best openings are filled. Here is the way to get all three at a minimum of effort and expense.

We are Dealers in Facts.

We furnish the best information obtainable on any subject in school, college or club, in business and public affairs. Our work is accurate, complete and to the point, carefully typewritten, promptly supplied, and arranged in suitable form, with outlines, bibliographies and full references.

We not only have in our own force highly-trained investigators and specialists in various lines, but we have made a business of "knowing the men who know" and means of this system of knowing "Who's Who for Efficiency" we can go straight to headquarters for authoritative information and expert advice.

Added to our large stock of information on hand and on our means of obtaining authentic information, we have a highly efficient system of sifting, rearranging and presenting our facts in form that exactly meets individual requirements—that would exactly meet your needs.

We are especially strong in political science, economics, sociology, anthropology, fine arts, literature, applied science, commercial geography, travel and exploration, international law and diplomacy, history, foreign affairs, interstate and foreign commerce, financial and industrial conditions, and public problems and live questions of the day.

The cost is less than might be expected. Our charges for new and original material are at the rate of two dollars for each thousand words furnished. Quality of work guaranteed, or money refunded. Methods, references and quotations on important investigations furnished upon request. (We have thousands of articles on hand which we offer, subject to prior sale, at $1.50 per thousand words. Send for price list.)

A Desirable Position for You.

If you are wise, you are already planning about a summer or permanent position or about an opening in the professions or independent business. To introduce our service to you, we will give you advice, information and real assistance along these lines without charge (from now up to the time you secure a desirable position) if you send us a five dollar order for information—i. e. 2,500 words or over at $2 per thousand.

In our official capacity, we come in touch with boards of trade, chambers of commerce and other local and general organizations of employers, as well as large corporations and other concerns, educational and other institutions, and municipal, state and other governmental departments. We are thus in a position to know of positions of all kinds everywhere as well as opportunities for starting out in independent business or professional lines.

No red tape, no commissions, no strings are attached to this offer. It is free and unconditional. This information we gain about positions is simply a valuable by-product of our regular information business, and we use it to attract, help and thus hold customers. We do for you all that any regular employment agency can do, with this important difference—we ask you to sign no involved contracts, pay no fees or commissions, and incur no other obligations.

Books and Magazines Free.

As a further inducement, with every five dollar order for information we will give free, in addition to the employment privilege, any book or a year of any magazine you specify, the publishers' price of which is not over one dollar. With a ten dollar order for information, we will give $2 worth of books or magazines; with a $15 order, $3 worth; with a $20 order, $4 worth; with a $25 order, $5 worth; and so on. Two or more men may club together with several subjects to make such an order and divide the privileges among them.

How to Order

Just think up one or more subjects on which you need material. Estimate the number of words required. Enclose two dollars for each thousand words desired, give us exact directions as to what you want and when you want it, and if the order is for five dollars or over, name the books or magazines you wish and tell us about the position you would like and your qualification for it. We will do the rest. Address at once:
