THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

VENABLE WINS FROM BAILEY IN THE FINALS

Fountain to play winner to decide the team's personnel. Hard schedule expected

The process of choosing two men out of sixteen by means of tennis tournament has gone on apace this week and last. At the end of the first round the following men were left: K. D. Battle and M. B. Wyatt, K. B. Bailey and C. W. Tillett, J. P. Morgan and J. W. Lasley, C. S. Venable and L. Lamb. Of these Battle won over Wyatt, Bailey won from Tillett, Morgan won over Lasley, and Venable won from Lamb. All of the winners have been members of a class team and two of them, Venable and Battle, of a championship team.

The semi-finals of the tennis tournament came around with the following four men still having a chance to make the team: K. D. Battle, K. B. Bailey, C. S. Venable, and J. P. Morgan. Bailey succeeded in winning from Battle after a close shave in the second set. Venable won from Morgan without a great deal of trouble, Morgan playing a defensive game all the way through. The two men who were now left in the running were the scrub team last year and their success argues well for the custom of having a scrub team being established in tennis as well as in other athletics.

The finals of the tennis tournament were played off yesterday afternoon. C. S. Venable won from K. B. Bailey by a close score in three sets. All the games were close but Venable won on account of Bailey's not being able to pass him at the net. Bailey played a fine steady game but his style of play was not equal to the strain.

Venable will now play Fountain, winner of last year's tournament. Should Fountain beat Venable they will make up the team. Should Venable win, Fountain must play Bailey.

It is extremely fortunate that we are to have a good team this year. It looks at present as if the schedule for the coming season is to be the hardest that any university team has ever been up against. Among the North Carolina colleges we will play our old rivals Guilford, Wake Forest and Davidson, and have the possibility of a meet with Trinity. Of these Wake Forest and Guilford will be played on the Hill. Other colleges with whom the tennis association authorities are in communication are Virginia, Washington and Lee, the Navy, and Richmond College. Of these Washington and Lee will be played on the Hill. If meets can be secured with all of these colleges it will mean by far the most difficult schedule we have ever had.

Rev. Francis M. Osborne, an alumnus of the University, rector of the Episcopal church at Dilworth, a suburb of Charlotte, will preach the University Sermon for October in Gerrard Hall Sunday night at 7:30. Mr. Osborne will preach at the Episcopal church Sunday morning.

VICTOR'S VENETIAN BAND

FIRST NUMBER OF STAR COURSE A SUCCESS

Instrumental soloists especially good. Vocal soloist also pleases the audience

In Memorial Hall at 2:15 o'clock on Friday evening Victor and his Venetian Royal Band under the auspices of the Star Course rendered the delightful program given below.

The company consisted of the band of 25 pieces and Mr. Howard Duane Bryant, barytone.

The Band was organized by Victor in 1899 and has been under almost continuous engagement since that time. Press and public alike have given it high praise. The players are Venetians nearly all of whom are excellent soloists on their respective instruments. The program rendered here gave several an opportunity to demonstrate their ability in this respect.

The vocal soloist was Mr. Howard Duane Bryant, whose barytone voice has been commended for its rare combination of power and sweetness. It is said that the manager of the Band was in the West on entirely different business when he "discovered" Mr. Bryant. He recognized his ability at once, realized that he had made a find, and engaged him then and there. Since that time he has moved steadily upward in the musical world.

The program:

1. March "American Spirit" Victor
2. Overture "William Tell" Rossini
3. Schubert's Serenade
4. Sextet from Lucia
5. Vocal Solo, Barytone

Mr. Howard Duane Bryant
6. Grand Selection from "Il Trovatore" Verdi

7. Scene Pictures, ue Massenet
8. Toreador Song from Carmen
9. Saxophone Quartet
10. Vocal Solo Selected
11. American Fantasie Herbert

In addition to this greatly pleasing program they gave us such additional selections as: "Way Down upon the Sewanee River" and a number of other popular airs.

The large Hall was comfortably filled. The attention of the audience never flagged but was completely absorbed by the beautiful music during the entire hour and a half.

The Bohemian Fete was especially enjoyed.

The soloists were uniformly good, and the Band so well balanced that the ensemble presented a complementary whole that was not only interesting but delightfully refreshing.

Mr. Y. Minakuchi, of Japan, will address the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night. His subject will be "Christianity and Christian Missions." Mr. Minakuchi is a graduate of a great university in Japan, an alumnus of the University of Kentucky and the Christian Theological Seminary. He studied Philosophy at Yale and is now a graduate student in the University. Mr. Minakuchi is an interesting speaker and no one in Chapel Hill is more fitted to discuss this subject than he is.
