VENABLE PICKS UP A FUMBLING PUNT AND SCORES

Porter, Venable, Belden play star ball for Carolina. Ball kept on shadow of W. and L's goal

In Newport News on Saturday the Carolina eleven wiped out the tie scores of two years past by defeating Washington and Lee University by the score of 6 to 0.

Carolina's touchdown came towards the last of the first half. O'Quinn had just punted 40 yards to our 40 yard line, and Croswell had returned the punt to midfield. Belk then punted a long spiral, which bounded away from the W. & L. receiver of punts. Venable caught the ball, and raced over the line for the only score of the game. Belden kicked goal.

Carolina's line plunging was her tower of strength, out of 16 first downs 14 were made by Carolina. The lads from Lexington could not stand up against Carolina's tried line buckers. Porter, Belden and Croswell gained almost at will through their opponents line. Their total line plays netted their team 136 yards. The forward pass was used effectively by Carolina, and the onside kick netted good gains. But the greatest factor in Carolina's victory was the way the players followed the ball and took every opportunity to recover. Washington and Lee fumbled 6 times, and 6 times did N. C. recover. Belden's work in this particular was preeminent. Three times, says the report, he got by the line and covered Waddell's fumbles. These characteristics of good football as demonstrated by Carolina Saturday readily show why Washington & Lee was defeated.

Despite the fact that Carolina could gain at will thru W. & L's. line, when the teams went together under the shadow of the Virginians' goal post line bucking was a radically different proposition. Several times after sweeping line plays had carried the ball within reach of W. & L's goal line, the boys from Lexington steadied and the ball went over. This splendid line defense in pinches tells why no larger scores was made. Carolina had no trouble carrying the ball to the neighborhood of the goals, but then they were forced either to try drops or lose the ball on downs. Belden's toe was a little off color, else the score would have been swelled by several field goals.

Porter, Venable and Belk played the best game for Carolina. Porter played a good defensive as well as offensive game. His line plunging netted the longest gains for his team. On defense no one made gains around his side. Venable played a brilliant game throughout. His work was speedy and sure, his tackling accurate, and his following the ball steady. He received the forward pass in good form and his recovery of fumbles accounts for our only score. Belk kept the team together in good style. His play had snap and ginger in it. His headwork was excellent, and his individual play likewise.

As to the Carolina line the detailed account speaks for itself. Every man in the line played his position man-

VIRGINIA AND WASHINGTON AND LEE FURNISH MORE VICTIMS

Virginia offers little trouble but Washington and Lee causes uneasiness for a time

The invasion of Virginia by the tennis team has been a most complete success. The four leading colleges of Virginia were played and they were annihilated in the order in which they came. Fountain and Venable played forty-one sets and in thirty-six they came out winners. Also they have played 336 games and out of these have won 241. All this has been accomplished in the short space of six days. Undoubtedly this is a record that has never been equalled in the realm of intercollegiate athletics. The record of the year is one that could not be surpassed.

Carolina	100	Guilford	000
"	100	R.-M.	000
"	100	R. C.	000
"	100	Virginia	000
"	100	W. & L.	30
Carolina	470	Opponents	30

In other words we have played five high class institutions and have been scored on but once and this once was after a week's harrowing nervous strain.

For the first time in three years Carolina met Virginia in a tennis match on the 11th and 12th of this month. Altho playing on their opponent's home grounds and worn with three days hard fighting, Carolina's representatives played a remarkably strong game. In the doubles Virginia proved easy, but in singles they turned out to be a different proposition. However they could only get one set of seven in the singles.

In doubles Virginia was represented by Neff and Rixey. Carolina's play was entirely too strong for the Virginians who were kept in the back of the courts always in a vain endeavor to return the heavy smashes of their opponents. Fountain and Venable played steadily and covered every foot of their territory.

The score:

Carolina	6 - 6 - 6
Virginia	4 - 2 - 1

In singles Virginia was represented by two new men, Pott and Bruns of whom Pott was winner of the championship tournament lately held at the University of Virginia. Fountain played against Bruns and had an easy time the score being three straight sets for Fountain.

The score:

Fountain	7 - 6 - 6
Bruns	5 - 2 - 1

Venable played Pott in the singles and first time on their trip a Carolina man played against somebody that could interest him. However, Venable won three out of four sets.

The score:

Venable	6 - 6 - 4 - 8
Pott	4 - 4 - 6 - 6

On Saturday the week's play was brought to a close by winning from Washington and Lee. The match was played on a heavy muddy court and the men did not show up at their best. In doubles W. & L. was represented by Robbins and Newton. Carolina played steadily and won handily,
