N. C. WINS ANOTHER SERIES

WITH THE SCORE A TIE IN A SERIES OF THREE CAROLINA WINS THIRD FROM PENN.

Carolina represented by E. McK. Highsmith and E. E. Barnett, Pennsylvania by Messrs. Hoover and Koschwitz

The University of North Carolina, represented by E. M. Highsmith and E. E. Barnett, won unanimously from the University of Pennsylvania in Gerrard Hall last Friday night.

In a series of three debates with Pennsylvania the score stood Pennsylvania one, Carolina one. In all the long course of her debating career Carolina had never lost a series. Neither member of the Carolina team had been members of a debating team here before. Every one at the University was unusually interested in the outcome of this critical debate.

The chair of the presiding officer was occupied by Mr. T. Wingate Andrews, formerly a Carolina representative in debate, at present superintendent of public instruction in the county of Orange. Mr. H. E. Stacy, one of Carolina's representatives against Tulane last year, was secretary of the debate. The judges were Messrs. William K. Boyd, of Trinity College, Judge Dred Peacock, of High Point, and Rev. Melton Clark of Greensboro. The representatives of the University of Pennsylvania were Messrs. Carl H. Hoover, Frederick H. Koschwitz, and W. Lewis Abbott, alternate. Carolina was represented by Messrs. E. M. Highsmith and E. E. Barnett.

President Andrews opened the debate promptly at 8:00 and Mr. Hoover of Pennsylvania was called as the first speaker for the affirmative. In a word Mr. Hoover's remarks were:

Mr. Hoover announced that the argument of the affirmative would center around two main propositions—first, that the Federal government is now in urgent need of money, second, the best way of meeting this need is by a Federal Inheritance Tax; the corollary was that the inheritance tax is by nature a Federal and not a state tax. The gentlemen from Pennsylvania stated that there were three ways of meeting this financial need of the Federal Government, by increasing the Protective Tariff, by imposing an Income Tax, or by placing a tax upon inheritances. He then attempted to show that the first two methods were not possible, while the third, the Income Tax, was practicable and had the following advantages peculiar to itself to recommend it,—first, the ease with which it could be collected, second, the lightness of the burden it would impose, and third, its natural fitness for Federal purposes because of the uniformity of the revenue derivable from it.

After Mr. Hoover had done Mr. Highsmith for Carolina was called. The following is a brief summary of the forceful speech which he delivered.

We admit the inheritance tax in theory and in practice. The issue is: what is its true place in our system of taxation? Now, since principle and law are fundamental in life, we must consider the question on the basis of

BANQUETS FOR N. C. TEAMS

FOOTBALL TEAM AT UNIVERSITY INN, DEBATERS IN Y. M. C. A. READING ROOM

E. A. Thompson to captain next year's team.—Eloquence of debaters did not stop with contest in Chapel

In the past few days Carolina has banqueted two of her winning teams, one in the realm of athletics, the other in the realm of debate.

The football team has gone thru a very successful season and the banquet they held was highly appropriate. The debating team has just won another series for Carolina in a field in which she stands preeminent. Both teams have done much to add to the glory of Carolina and to increase their own self-confidence.

Football Banquet

Monday night the football team of 1909 met for the last time as such. The occasion was the annual banquet which crowns each season with the rose-wreaths of conviviality. The place was University Inn whose walls have heard more wit than any man can boast of.

Altho the banquet was a most informal affair the speeches of the occasion must have been well prepared. E. A. Thompson acted as toastmaster and he it was who started the flow of eloquence symposial. Speakers from the faculty were Drs. D. H. Dolly and R. B. Lawson. From the words of either no man could have told whether they were the coaches of the team or not. Each of them seemed to know each strength and weakness of the team before him and each showed himself a man who had the interests of the football team at heart as much as it is given to any man to have it.

Other speakers were Coach A. E. Brides and ex-Capt. C. C. Garrett. Coach Brides spoke at length in praise of the team but his breath gave out before he could finish his praise. "Ichabod" spoke a few words about the past season that was so unfortunately ended and about the next season that seems so fair in its promise.

Before the close of the banquet the captain of the team for next year was chosen. The man who has held one portion of our line impregnable this year and who has played the part of field captain so well when called on in an emergency was chosen to pilot the team of 1910. Earl A. Thompson, "Big Tommy," played first on Carolina's eleven in 1907, in 1908 he played star ball; and this season his record has been such that he is at least a most promising candidate for the All-Southern football eleven. Under his able leadership Carolina looks forward to another successful football season next year.

After making merry until the wee small hours of the night the occasion was brought to a close by a succession of yells led by Hon. Louis DeK. Belden.

Banquet to Debaters

Friday night immediately after the debate a banquet was had in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. in honor of the debating teams. The members of both teams, the officials of the de-
