On Tuesday night the Y. M. C. A. was addressed by Prof. P. H. Winston, of the law department. His subject was "Cleanliness".

Nere Day, ex 1910, who has been out in Wyoming since he left college, was on the Hill Wednesday night.

The friends of Prof. Collier Cobb have been pained to observe the indisposition which prevented his meeting his classes during the first of the week and all hope to see him entirely recovered soon.

The songster of the fascinating "Pickwick" failed to appear Thursday night. We sincerely hope that he is not sick and that he will put in his appearance shortly as he is the chief drawing card.

The members of the Ministerial Band were treated to a sumptuous spread Thursday night by Messrs. Lee Cooper and Joe Walker.

The University Dramatic Club is going on the road the week after Christmas. On Monday night, Dec. 27th., they show in Sanford; Dec. 28th., Washington; Dec. 29th., Edenton; and Dec. 31st., Elizabeth City.

While watching the fire and helping the extinguishers Thursday night Mr. Alex. L. Feild was the cause of much excitement. He was attacked by a very large rat and if his friends had not come to his rescue he would probably have been seriously injured.

A good deal of excitement was caused Thursday night immediately after supper, by the burning of Mr. Frank Pickard's barn. Hundreds of students were at the fire a short time after the bell rang and two or three small buildings were saved.

The graduate students of the University met Thursday night and organized a Graduate Club. The following officers were elected: President, Claud Howard, Vice-president, E. McK. Highsmith, Secretary and Treasurer, V. C. Pritchett, Chairman of the executive committee, Dr. C. L. Raper.

On Sunday at 12:30 there will be a joint meeting of all the Bible Classes in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. Rev. R. W. Hogue will summarize the life of St. Paul. All men in the Bible Study Classes are urgently requested to be present. Visitors are invited.

There was a motley assemblage in Holladay's studio Wednesday afternoon. The German Club was to have its picture taken and all the dirty shirts, old collars, badly pressed coats, light pants, and red shoes were present. If there was a fully dressed man present the writer didn't see him and if the picture is creditable it will be the fault of the photography. Let us hope that photography will be merciful.

Typewriters for rent, Robert W. Foister.

If for any reason the suits you have ordered this fall do not fit, call and see me. W. H. Boger of Varsity Tailoring Co. Fits here guaranteed.

For the second time in the history of the University, the Seniors and Juniors held a joint meeting last night in Gerrard Hall. They met to consider Junior week. A committee was appointed to arrange a program which will be submitted to the two classes soon after Christmas. The committee was: J. B. Farrior, '10, E. F. McCulloch, '11, W. L. Small, '11, and I. F. Witherington, '11; D. B. Teague, '10.

At the Theatre

The trial month of the Pickwick has passed. Doubtless the management will keep the pictures going after Christmas. As a place where the students could get a little amusement in a town where amusement non est, its success has been assured and it has been well merited. Practically all the pictures have been good, many of the students had read Maupassant's "The Necklace" and had appreciated it but they had never had such a graphic realization of it as when they saw the whole story portrayed in the motion pictures. Also the static color pictures accompanying the songs have often been quite beautiful. With the exception of the so called songs the music has been well rendered on the drum and piano. Taken all together the Pickwick has done quite a good deal to add to the pleasantness that that short hour after supper which the students spend "down town." If it were only possible to start the first show a little earlier and do away with that half hour of being bored while awaiting the mail.

Dramatic Club in Greensboro

The Dramatic Club appeared before the State Normal College at Greensboro last Saturday night, in "The Indian." An audience of some five hundred young ladies, composed of students, faculty and not a few alumni heartily applauded the boys. The players did themselves proud. Dr. Foust, president of the Normal, took special pains to express his satisfaction with the players and told them to return at an early date. The opinion of those who saw "The Indian" at the Normal is that the students did credit to themselves and to the University. Mr. D. P. Stern, in the name of the alumni, thanked the students for their excellent performance and after the performance treated them to a bird supper—all of the players had a most enjoyable trip.
