

ON THE CAMPUS

Will R. Wilson, '12, of Greenville has received an appointment to West Point.

George Whitley is confined to the infirmary with grip.

John Boushall has returned from a short visit to Raleigh.

Dr. C. L. Raper will address the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night at 7 o'clock.

D. B. Teague made an excellent talk before the Thursday night meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

George C. Wood left Thursday for Hillsboro to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Collins.

Dr. Thomas Hume has been invited to speak at the Baptist Church Sunday morning on "Religion and Life in Bunyan", with reference to the Bunyan Celebration in Westminster Abbey.

Stowe Crouse '11 has just returned after a weeks visit to Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. H. G. Davidson, of Greensboro, is the guest of her brother, Dr. Palmer Cobb.

Tickets for the lyceum attractions next Wednesday night are now on sale at the University Drug Store.

Miss Minerva McNeil, after visiting Mrs. R. S. MacRae for several days, left Wednesday for Fayetteville.

A large number of candidates for the glee club met Wednesday afternoon with Prof. W. H. Overton, of Durham, in Symphony Hall.

Joe Boushall went home, Raleigh, Wednesday, suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

L. C. Kerr has sufficiently recovered from an attack of pneumonia to go home.

George Thomas of, last year's senior class, is on the Hill.

G. M. Fountain left Friday for his home in Tarboro.

For typewriters, see Robert W. Foister.

C. K. Ober, International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was on the Hill Friday conferring with several men contemplating entering the Y. M. C. A. Secretaryship.

Mr. N. V. Stockton '09, of the Mock, Bagby, Stockton Co. of Winston Salem, is here in the interest of that firm of which he is a member.

Prof. P. H. Winston, of the Law Department, has recently been elected as a vestryman in the Episcopal church. This fills the vacancy left by the death of the late Judge McRae.

Miss Bright, who is on the Hill looking into the advisability of establishing a class in vocal and instrumental music, will sing the offertory at the Episcopal church tomorrow, Sunday, morning. She will also sing a solo at the three o'clock Y. M. C. A. meeting, Sunday afternoon.

If for any reason the suits you have ordered this spring do not fit, call and see W. H. Boger, of Varsity Tailoring Co. Fits here guaranteed.

All Seniors sign script in Bursar's office before 4 o'clock today or their pictures will go in Y. Y. without signatures.

Prof. W. D. Toy, head of the Department of Modern Languages, was given a year's leave of absence in order that he may travel and study in Europe. Prof. Toy and his family will sail for the Old Country immediately after the closing of the spring term in May.

From now, through Holy week, which is the last week in March, culminating in Good Friday, service March 25th and Easter March 27th daily services will be held at the Episcopal Church except on Mondays and Saturdays. The main theme of Rev. Mr. Hogue's short addresses at the 7 o'clock night services will be on "Self Mastery and Character Building." These will be varied by readings from Phillips Brooks.

There is a question box in the front of the church where the students may place questions to be answered by the Rector on Sunday nights.

Mr. E. G. W. Towers, '12, went to Hillsboro on Monday to attend the funeral of his brother Mr. F. Lyburn Towers. Bishop Cheshire assisted the local clergyman in conducting this funeral which was held on Tuesday. The late Mr. Towers was formerly a resident of this place his father being rector of the Episcopal church here some twelve years ago. Before his death Mr. Lyburn Towers had been in the Government Insurance department at Washington City, and had only recently made up his mind to study for the ministry, and enter the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Va. in the early fall. Mr. Towers was in the beginning of a brilliant career, being only twenty-three years of age, and of splendid athletic physique. He was sick for only ten days, and the cause of his death was the severest type of pneumonia.

In the relay race between Cornell and Virginia at the George Washington meet last Saturday, Stanton accomplished the wonderful feat of gaining 48 yards on his man. Douglas the second runner for Virginia had fallen and lost fifty yards; the third man held his own; and Stanton began with a fifty yard handicap. In his meteoric finish the Californian gained at every stride coming in only two yards behind his opponent.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Undergraduate Department. The One Hundred and Forty-fifth Session will begin September, 23, 1910. The course of instruction, extending over four annual sessions of eight and one-half months each, is a carefully graded and eminently practical one, beginning with the fundamental branches with full laboratory exercises, proceeding through a comprehensive system of clinical instruction in which ward and bedside instruction and individual work on the part of the students form a large part, and terminating in the Fourth Year with the assignment of students as clinical clerks in the Hospital. A large proportion (more than 80 per cent.) of the graduating classes secure positions as internes in hospitals.

Entrance requirements embrace a minimum of two years of college work, including two languages other than English (French or German must be one of these) and at least one year of study with appropriate laboratory work in Physics, General Biology or Zoology and General and Inorganic Chemistry (including Qualitative Analysis).

For Further information, apply to the Dean of the School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.
