

ON THE CAMPUS

Mr. L. N. Taylor, the brilliant young editor of this column, has returned from Oxford.

Ney McNeely is sick with the measles.

J. T. Johnson has gone home, being unable to study on account of pink eye.

A large number of students are suffering from the pink eye.

Miss Mary Pruden, of Edenton, is visiting Mrs. E. K. Graham.

Miss Eliza Knox, of Raleigh, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. S. Holmes, on Faculty Row.

Eugene Newell returned to the Hill Monday night.

Chevis Kerr has returned from a visit to Clinton.

Henry Smith has returned from a short trip to Raleigh.

Joe Dawson spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends at Trinity College.

Tom McManis has returned from a business trip to the western part of the State.

W. J. Cruthfield returned Monday from a short trip to Greensboro.

W. J. Harris, '12, and F. Hough '11, spent Friday night in Durham.

P. R. Chapelle, law '11, returned from a visit to his home on Saturday.

W. J. Crutchfield, '12, went to Greensboro on Friday.

Professor Mitchell and Tom Hunter visited Durham on Saturday.

I. H. Hughes, '11, returned to the Hill on Saturday after accompanying F. O. Steele to Rex Hospital.

Professor Grimes of the Law department spent Saturday and Sunday with his family at his home in Raleigh.

"Pat" Bivens, a "Christmas Gift" of the Senior class, visited his home in Durham on Saturday.

Messrs. J. B. and A. A. Zollicoffer, '11, visited their home in Henderson over Sunday.

"Lick" West, med. '10, spent Saturday at his home in Raleigh.

"Sandy" Graham, '12, after recovering from an attack of Grippe in the infirmary has left for Hillsboro, his home, where he will stay for a few days to recuperate.

There were no debates held in the Di and Phi halls Saturday night as the power house was unable to furnish lights.

Rev. Mr. Hogue returned from Warrenton Monday night. Mr. Hogue conducted a Y. M. C. A. campaign at Warrenton High School.

Rev. Sidney S. Bost, of Durham, preached a splendid sermon to a large congregation at the Episcopal church on Sunday. Mr. Bost left for Durham immediately after service, as he had other appointments to fill that day. It was announced that regular week day services would be held during this week at the church. Rev. Mr. Hogue returned during the first of the week.

The Rev. R. C. Beaman, D. D., will preach at the Methodist Church next Sunday, February 27, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Dr. Beaman is now Presiding Elder of the Durham District, having been appointed to this District at the late session of the N. C. Conference. He takes the place of the Rev. J. B. Hurley. Dr. Beaman was once pastor of the M. E. Church here. He is thought by a good many to be the finest preacher in the N. C. Conference. Dr. Beaman has filled some of the most important churches in the State, and he comes to us with the highest recommendation as a preacher. Everyone is cordially invited to hear him next Sunday.

George Wood, '12, who went to Hillsboro to visit his grandmother Mrs. Collins, while recuperating from an attack of acute rheumatism, is back on the Hill.

Mr. George S. Attmore, '07, is spending his vacation on the Hill. While formerly residing at Bayboro, N. C., Mr. Attmore has now made New Bern his home. He is teller in The National Bank of New Bern.

T. B. Slade, '11, who was successfully operated upon for appendicitis at Rex Hospital some two weeks ago, is now up, and was able to leave for his home at Hamilton, N. C., on Sunday. Mr. Slade will spend at least two weeks at his home before returning to College.

President Robt. Pell, of Converse College, left Friday for his home. He has been on the Hill for about ten days spending a vacation. Pres. Pell is a graduate of this University and later was an instructor here. Before becoming President of Converse College, he was President of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina at Columbia, S. C. While on the Hill, President Pell was registered at Pickards Hotel, but was entertained extensively by many members of the faculty. Since leaving the University, his teaching has been almost entirely among girls, but he has a deep interest in boys, and thoroughly enjoyed coming into personal contact with so many boys and discussing athletics and general college affairs with them.

Mr. F. O. Steele, '13, of Patterson, N. C., was taken to Rex Hospital Raleigh, on Friday, where he goes for surgical attention. Mr. Steele, when young, suffered from the effects of white swelling, leaving his left leg in weakened condition. It was owing to unusual strain in walking which assisted anew this wound; so he was sent to Rex Hospital for special treatment under Dr. Hubert A. Royster. Mr. Steele was accompanied to the hospital by I. Harding Hughes. At the last hearing Mr. Steele was resting fairly well, but it was not known whether an operation would have to be performed or not.

Typewriters for rent, Robert W. Foister.

If for any reason the suits you have ordered this fall do not fit call and see me. W. H. Boger, of Varsity Tailoring Compano. Fits here guaranteed.

Determined Efforts of Students Frustrated

Some half a dozen students, worn out with the cares of college existence and urged on by the desire to see a magnificent production of the modern theatre, hied them hence to Raleigh one day last week. Their seats were bought, the rest of their cash was expended in railroad fare. But what cared they? They were going to have a high old time. The time for the performance arrives. These students make a break for the opera house. But as they nearly reach their goal, behold! there is a most described clamoring for entrance. The report comes that the mayor has forbidden the company to show.

Are these grave seniors and important post graduates to become the laughing stock of all their companions? Not much. The doors of the Capital Club invite. Once ensconced in those bay windows they look down upon the throng at the theatre door and laugh at them for fools. But these same students return to college empty-handed and no show have they seen. Even how they walk the campus with that do-the-best-you-can-to-live-up-to-me look they wore before.

The same performance being scheduled for Durham on Monday night this crowd of young men augmented in number by some 250 other students made another effort see. All the choice seats were engaged. Rainy weather did not hinder the trip. Yet the cruel aldermen of the city shut up the theatre. The students returned the morn wiser tho probably no better men.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Undergraduate Department. The One Hundred and Forty-fifth Session will begin September, 23, 1910. The course of instruction, extending over four annual sessions of eight and one-half months each, is a carefully graded and eminently practical one, beginning with the fundamental branches with full laboratory exercises, proceeding through a comprehensive system of clinical instruction in which ward and bedside instruction and individual work on the part of the students form a large part, and terminating in the Fourth Year with the assignment of students as clinical clerks in the Hospital. A large proportion (more than 80 per cent.) of the graduating classes secure positions as internes in hospitals.

Entrance requirements embrace a minimum of two years of college work, including two languages other than English (French or German must be one of these) and at least one year of study with appropriate laboratory work in Physics, General Biology or Zoology and General and Inorganic Chemistry (including Qualitative Analysis).

For Further information, apply to the Dean of the School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.
