There arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James F. Royster, on the morning of February the twenty-second, a splendid little baby boy. The new arrival has been named Chauncey Lake, for his grandfather on his mother's side.

There was a good deal of excitement one morning this week on account of the fire which was discovered in Sam Stroup's room at the Central Hotel. The fire was soon extinguished, but Stroup's trunk was badly damaged, and several articles of his athletic paraphernalia destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown, as there had been no fire in the room on that day.

George Nelson Coffey, 1900, has been detailed by the Secretary of Agriculture to give a course of lectures on soil investigation, before the students of geology in the University during the latter part of April.

The Mission Study classes are now well started. Sunday afternoon at 4:30, Mr. Minakuchi gave his first lecture on "Regeneration of Japan." The auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. was nearly full. On Tuesday night, Rev. R. W. Hogue gave a very interesting talk on the reasons for studying the work in foreign fields and the countries themselves. He then began his lecture by showing us there was interest in other "Turkey" than the feathered turkey. Hereafter, this class will meet in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, Monday night, at 6:45.

Dr. Patterson's class in, "Challenge of the City," met Wednesday night. Dr. Patterson brought out some very interesting and startling facts, showing the great moral poverty of our cities.

If for any reason the suits you have ordered this fall do not fit call and see me. W. H. Boger, of Varsity Tailoring Compano. Fits here guaranteed.

The preliminary contest for the selection of commencement debaters from the Phi. Society was held in the Phi. hall last night at 8 o'clock. The question debated was: Resolved, That the United States Government should establish a great central bank. The contestants were: W. F. Taylor, W. C. Guess, E. F. McCulloch, Jr., E. W. Turlington, L. H. Williams, and J. M. Shields. The judges were: Dr. Wagstaff, Prof. Booker, and Prof. Bernard.

At his home on Boylan avenue Tuesday evening Dr. Hubert A. Royster gave a reception to the students and faculty of the University Medical School, as is his custom to do each year on Washington's birthday. The guest was Dr. J. S. Highsmith, of Fayetteville, who read an excellent paper on practical questions relating to medicine and surgery. Practically all the students and members of the faculty of the Medical School were present to enjoy the occasion.

As the evening drew to a close, delicious refreshments were served. —News and Observer, Wed. 24.

The Rev. R. C. Beaman, D. D., will preach at the Methodist Church next Sunday, February 27, at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Dr. Beaman is now Presiding Elder of the Durham District, having been appointed to this District at the late session of the N. C. Conference. He takes the place of the Rev. J. B. Hurley. Dr. Beaman was once pastor of the M. E. Church here. He is thought by a good many to be the finest preacher in the N. C. Conference. Dr. Beaman has filled some of the most important churches in the State, and he comes to us with the highest recommendation as a preacher. Everyone is cordially invited to hear him next Sunday.

John E. Ray, of Raleigh, after spending a number of days at his home recuperating from recent sickness, returned to the Hill the first of the week to resume his studies in the medical department.

E. J. Newell, who is taking advanced work in chemistry, is back on the Hill again after an absence of four weeks. Mr. Newell has been in Baltimore, at the Mercy hospital, where he has been undergoing special medical treatment under a specialist. He returns to us much improved.

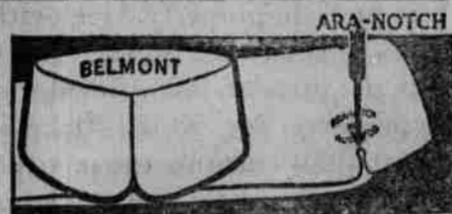

Dr. Mangum reports that the Infirmary is full of patients, but there are no serious cases. They are the same old troubles, which are prevalent during this season of the year, grippe, measles, mumps, and tonsillitis.

Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., of Wilmington, Bishop of Eastern Carolina, arrived in the Hill today. Since Chapel Hill is not in Bishop Strange's diocese, the University is very fortunate in receiving an annual visitation from him. On Sunday morning the Bishop will preach at the Episcopal Church. On Sunday night he will preach in the chapel. All students desiring to meet or call on the Bishop are invited to meet him at Rev. Mr. Hogue's on Sunday night after service.

Mr. Isaac Wright, '05, was on the Hill Wednesday as the guest of his sister, Mrs. L. R. Wilson. Mr. Wright will be remembered as both an athlete and debater while in college. He is now practicing law at his native town, Clinton, N. C.
