Leaves of Life

The publication of a book of poems by a young North Carolinian is an event that cannot fail to be of interest to many University men. Especially is this true when the author is himself a University man and so recent a student as Mr. Samuel H. Lyle, Jr., of the class of '08. Mr. Lyle's book, "Leaves of Life", is a collection of short poems, very few of which exceed a page in length. Even before he left college, this writer's verses had attracted considerable attention and praise. Those who have read the University Magazine will find many of the poems in this collection familiar. Mr. Lyle has a feeling for the poetic and a gift of expression which is rare. This volume is published by the McGregor Co., Athens, Ga., in a single and attractive binding.

Fraternity Dance

The Bynum Gymnasium was the scene of loveliness and merriment on Thursday night, when the Pan-Hellenic German was given by the Fraternities in honor of the Senior and Junior Classes. Long streamers of red and white, and purple and white added beauty above, to somewhat harmonize with the exquisite gowns worn by the fair ladies who bedecked the hall below. Music was furnished by Levin's Orchestra of Raleigh. The dance was led by W. T. Joyner, assisted by J. G. Beard and F. G. Whitney. There were in all forty-five couples who participated.

Those who attended the dance were: Misses Marion Lee, May Belle Small, Annie Wood, Virginia Dance, Annie Worth, Placide Kramer, Marguerite Ludlow, Maude Grice, Emily Barbee, Elizabeth Chambers, Blalock, Nannie Hay, Wingo, Merrimon, Lillian Kenly, Eloise Dick, Robertson, Carroll, Louise Venable, Ethel Rogers, Worth, Nannie Merritt, Etta Brand, Newell, May Hume, Marguerite Brown, Pugh, Lois,
