Berryman, Cartoonist

On Monday night a most appreciative audience greeted the great political cartoonist, Mr. Berryman, who spoke and drew cartoons in Gerrard Hall. Mr. Berryman is the cartoonist of the "Washington Star" and his work is reproduced in the leading newspapers over the country. He was introduced to the Chapel Hill audience by a former beloved pastor of the Presbyterian Church here. Rev. William T. D. Moss, thru whose influence Mr. Berryman's visit was made possible. Rarely has a man so pleased an audience here as did Mr. Berryman by his charming personality and by the ease, humor, and art of his drawings.

Enthusiastic Mass Meeting

A small but vigorous Virginia game mass meeting was held in Gerrard Hall Monday night. The time was short and there were no long speeches. Mr. Hogue announced that the alumni of Greensboro would furnish a band for the first game and probably the manager of the excursion from Greensboro to Charlotte would pay the expenses of the band to Charlotte for the second game. Mr. C. O. Robinson stated that round trip tickets to Greensboro at $1.50 would be on sale at Neville's store Thursday night. The tickets to Charlotte and return, to Greensboro, will be sold for the sum of $2.65. Mr. F. P. Graham told of the great preparations Charlotte people are making for their game. The expenses of the team will be paid by Charlotte. The alumni of Mecklenburg, according to a telephone message from Mr. T. W. Wade, are anxious that the student bodies of both Virginia and Carolina should attend and make the second game as great an event as the first.

Dr. Patterson said that the time was quickly passing for talking and coming for us to lick Virginia. He asked the team not to be over-confident, but to play a fighting game from the start to the finish, remembering that Virginia was never licked until three men were out in the ninth. Hedgepeth lived up to his reputation as an ever ready mass meeting speaker. A song and yell practice was announced for each night at 7:15 until the games.
