LEADING MAN WELL AGAIN AND PLAY WILL SOON BE PULLED OFF

Attraction promises to be the best yet presented by the dramatic club. Resume of plays already given

"London Assurance" will, for a certainty, be presented by the Dramatic Club on Thursday night. For some years past college dramatics have flourished at the University, and the efforts of the students have always been attended with more or less success. Probably upon no play yet presented has so much care been expended as upon the present production of "London Assurance". For the first time, a chance to make good in some part was offered to every student in the University who was willing to try. Thirty candidates, altogether, presented themselves. After repeated competitive trials before an able committee, twelve of these men were finally selected for the actors. Director Vermont immediately set to work to get the play in proper shape, and by long nightly rehearsals it has been built up and polished until every scene is gone through easily, and with snap and vim.

As to the play itself, it may be said, that it is a delightful extravaganza. It was written chiefly to amuse, and incidentally to teach a lesson. There is a laugh in nearly every line of it. Being first produced in London in 1841, it was, in fact, the "furor of London" during the fifties. Certainly it is worth while for anyone who likes to laugh to sit for two hours or more, and follow the fortunes of proud,

N. C. PLAYS RAGGED IN BEGINNING AND STEWART NOT EFFECTIVE

"Red improves all the way through. Bunting of Bivins and Hamilton features, along with Hackney's wonderful catch

Carolina defeated the Central University of Kentucky on the local diamond Monday by the score of 5 to 3. The game started with a rush. Vinson, for Kentucky, hit clean. Arnold bunted down first base line. Stewart fielded the ball, but thinking it was foul did not throw to first. The ball was called fair, and a hit scored. Webber caused exactly the same play by a bunt down the third base line. With the bases full and none down Carolina executed a brilliant triple play, allowing only Vinson to score.

After the third inning no hits were gotten off Stewart. He fanned ten and walked only two. He was in trim shape.

The hitting of Bivins and Hamilton was severe. Bivins hit three times safely, Hamilton twice. Swink, who batted for Stacy in the fourth, lined a beauty to right-center. The entire team hit the ball on the nose, and their stick work was aggressive.

The playing of Vinson at short was the feature for the visitors.

The game in detail:

N. C. FINISHES EXCITING TRACK MEET WITH GOOD MARGIN, 64-44

Winston, Parsley, Atkinson, Thompson, Hoffman, and the rest of the team do star work for Carolina

In the prettiest track meet ever witnessed on the local field, Carolina defeated Washington and Lee Saturday by the safe margin of 64 to 44. Altho Carolina finished with a lead of twenty points, the score stood at one time 36 to 36 and considerable anxiety was felt as to the final outcome.

Neither was handicapped by a lack of men to enter as Washington and Lee brought twenty men on their team. Each event gave place to as many entries as the track would accommodate. Carolina took eight first places and Washington and Lee took three. On the other hand seven of the second places swelled the score for Washington and Lee. Eight third places also went to them.

Carolina's men are still busy lowering and raising state records. Hoffman, who was the holder of the state record of the half mile at 2:05 1-5, lowered his own record 2 1-2 seconds, and seemed capable of doing more. Parsley made a new record in the pole vault by clearing the bar at 10ft 3in. He cleared the bar neatly tho on the fourth trial.

Other features of the meet were: Winston running in the 100 yds and 220 yds. The first he made in 1-5sec. of the state record. In the latter he finished with a good lead. In the high hurdles Ruffin finished so close to Satterfield that it was almost the unanimous opinion of the bystanders that he had tied. No one kicked on the decision however. In the hammer throw Atkinson beat his own record of 113ft. by 3 1-2in.
