THE student body and the alumni of the University of North Carolina had never before felt so keenly the loss of a great man and a kindly, sympathetic friend as they did Saturday morning when the college bell tolled the death of Dr. Eben Alexander of the faculty—Dr. Alex as he was affectionately known by the students. While Dr. Alexander had been in feeble health for some time, it had been a very pleasant expectation to all to look forward to the enjoyment of his presence here for at least a few more years.

Those qualities of Dr. Alexander which especially endeared him to every student of the University were his never failing courtesy, his friendliness, and his sympathy. When for years he filled the chair of dean of the academic department, that position above all others which offers the best chance for friction with the students, but his courtesy on all occasions made him the best loved and most respected member of the faculty. Dr. Alexander was known thruout the State as a most excellent teacher. But those who had the pleasure of taking his course knew that he was more than a great teacher, he was a sympathetic teacher. Never a word of anger at any offender, never a word of impatience to any dullard. No wonder he was the best beloved teacher in the State. The students have admired other great men but their love for one man has never been equalled. It shall ever be the glory of Dr. Eben Alexander to be remembered as "Dr. Alex, loved by every student."

THE baseball game with Bingham Monday served an excellent end in that it restored the confidence of the students in the team. The excellent batting of the whole team was remarkable for the first game in the season and Dr. Lawson's coaching was apparent in the number of long drives over the outfield. Altho the strong wind that was blowing was very cutting Stewart pitched his usual game—eleven strike-outs, three singles. Taken as a whole the fielding of the team was good. It is the consensus of opinion among the students generally that the initial game of the seasons was very happy in its issue.

Carolina 6—Bingham 2

Hackney's batting was sensational. A single, a two base hit, hit by the ball, and a sacrifice in four times up places his batting average at 1000. Stewart followed with two hits out of four times up. Tillet singled out of three times up. Bivens, Armstrong,

Hamilton and Duncan secured one hit each out of four times up. Swink's long sacrifice and base on balls gives him no time at bat. Poole was up once but secured no hit. Rose was up twice but failed to connect.

Only in two particulars was the game's fielding brilliant. Tillet's one hand stop of Harris's hot grounder over second clearly robbed the Bingham catcher of a hit. In return Lloyd made a pretty catch of Tillet's drive and by a quick throw caught Rose at first. Hamilton's work at first was steady, tho no chance occurred for the splendid fielding of which he is capable. Swink and Poole both caught an errorless game. Tillet's work at short was ragged, his three errors with Stewart's wild throw making all of Carolina's faults.

The following is the game in detail: Bingham—Roberts out pitcher to first. Sharp singles over second, but dies when Doak fans.

Carolina—Bivens hits to left for two bases. Armstrong advances him to third with a neat sacrifice. Hamilton fans, and Duncan retires the side pitcher to first.

Bingham—Hamilton retires Lloyd unassisted. Harris goes out short to first. Hackney fans.

Carolina—Hackney singles to left. Stewart doubles to left placing Hackney on third. Hackney steals home. Swink sacrifices Stewart to third. Rose walks. Tillet flies to center, scoring Stewart. By a quick throw Lloyd catches Rose off first.

Bingham—Wessell flies to Hackney. Howard fans. Roberts singles to center, but expires on first as Carroll flies to center.

Carolina—Bivens hits to third and is thrown out at first. "Armie" hits to deep center for two bags. Hamilton pops up to third on Carroll's error. Armstrong takes third and Duncan first. Duncan steals second. "Armie" steals home. Duncan steals third, and scores on Hackney's two bagger to left. Stewart out pitcher to first.

Bingham—Sharpe safe on short stop's error. Doak places him on second with a sacrifice short to first. Lloyd strikes out. Stewart fans Harris.

Carolina—Swink walks, but is out in an attempt to steal second. Rose fans. Tillet walks. Bivens strikes out.

Bingham—Hackney strikes out. Wessell fans. Howard out to "Ham" unassisted.

Carolina—Armstrong flies out to left. Hamilton hits to left. Duncan singles to left. Hackney walks, filling the bases. "Red" lays down a nice bunt, but Hamilton is caught at the plate. Swink gets hit, forcing Duncan across the plate. Rose flies to short.

Bingham—Swink is replaced by Poole. Roberts safe at first on Tillet's error. Carroll fouls out to catcher. Roberts steals second. Sharpe out pitcher to first. Doak draws a pass. Roberts and Doak pull off a double steal. Lloyd hits to center, scoring both men, but is caught at second by Stewart's pretty throw.

Carolina—Tillet out third to first. Bivens out pitcher to first. Armstrong out short to first.

Bingham—Harris, Hackney, and Wessell succumb to "Red's" curves in one, two, three order.

Carolina—Taylor goes in the box for Bingham, and begins by hitting Hamilton. Howard goes in center field. Duncan strikes out. "Ham" steals second and third, scoring on Hackney's sacrifice. Stewart singles to center, steals second but Poole fans. Bingham—Howard out second to first. Roberts out to Hackney. Carroll fouls out to first.

Carolina—Rose walks. Tillet singles, advancing Rose to second. Bivens advances both runners by a pretty sacrifice. "Armie" strikes out. Hamilton goes out pitcher to first.

Bingham—Sharpe safe on Tillet's error. He steals second. Doak sacrifices him to third. Taylor fans. Harris flies out to Duncan.
