Sportograms

As prophesied, things have been doing this week and no mistake. The first mixup came Monday, since then there has been a fierce melee each afternoon.

Viewed from the present angle, the new game is going to be decidedly more thrilling to the peanut eaters and spearmint grinders. The elimination of the double pass will make the plays faster and a whole lot more uncertain. As to being safer, well it may be, but it is not a girl's game yet by a jugfull. By next Saturday night there will be some real certainties about these new rules.

"Ichabod," "Grizzly" Thompson and big Ross looks like they are going to make somebody hustle for the all South Atlantic. Stephens Abernethy and Craven are doing some nice line work. Young and Calmes looks mighty good as ends.

Bob Winston is another man who looks like all South Atlantic timber.

"Bull" Hasty has been doing well in the ball field, considering his slight experience with the game. He is going to make somebody work like the mischief to hold his job.

Did you ever see a meaner man to tackle than Ruffin? He prances along with his knees in the air like a coach horse.

Ritch is a better player than he was two years ago, better on advancing the ball. His tackling is rather uncertain, though.

Talking about tackling, "Fleet" Williams has improved in his. He did some clean cut work, Thursday.

"Buds" Blaylock the veteran scrub is holding down an end in fine style.

Ames Brown is doing some mighty aggressive work around that center position.

Sam Spencer's arm is giving him lots of trouble. Otherwise he would be making the old timers sit up and take notice.

Next Saturday's game will be the biggest pigskin affair we have had on the Hill in many moons. Keep that in your minds.

News from the Virginia camp has been 'skace.' Their squad is forty Five strong. Elliott of their last years ends and a first class man in every respect will be out of the game on account of an operation performed some time back. Honaker is also missing.

Well, the first accident under the new rules came off Monday. A high school boy out in Ohio has his collar bone broken. No, St. Mary's and Peace wont take up the game for a while yet.

Our friends at Wake Forest are hot to form a State basket-ball league. If we had a five we would send it over. As it is we will try to show them a stunt on the athletic field Oct. 22nd.

The Yale bulldog mopped up the Princeton Tiger at golf, Wednesday, thereby winning the intercollegiate championship.

FOOTBALL AT VIRGINIA

The following paragraphs taken from "College Topics", the student publication of the University of Virginia, give some idea as to the football prospects of that college:

There are back this year "four of last year's "V" men and six or seven men who were subs. Captain "Pop" Geyer, All South-Atlantic guard and considered one of the greatest linesmen the South has seen in years, will play his old position at tackle. "Ted" Bowen, one of last season's speedy ends, "Ed." Holladay, half-back and the only one of the back-field in college, and Cecil, who played the other tackle, will form the nucleus for this season's team. Todd, sub-quarterback, and Varner and Towles, sub-linesmen, will also be possibilities for the team.

"The football outlook is very uncertain so far, as there will be seven places to fill, and for the greater part from the new material. For the past week the men have been drilled in following the ball and passing, and a little light team work, and no good conclusion can be drawn as to how they will work in scrimmage. The squad will probably be worked out in scrimmage this afternoon or to-morrow for the first time, and some idea of their working ability formed.

Head Coach "Charlie" Crawford has been keeping the men down to work and intends to bring out the best that is in them. Hammond Johnson and Oscar Randolph will help with the preliminary coaching; and "Speed" Elliot, star end on last year's team, who cannot play this year because of an operation on his ear last spring, will devote his time all season helping with the coaching.

"It is by no means certain that Honaker, star quarterback on the team two years ago, will be back, though there was a rumor out that he would."
