Sportograms

The big show will be pulled off this p. m. at 3:30. This is the biggest football fracas we have had on the Hill in a mighty long while. Ergo, Carolina expects every mother's son of you to dig down in your jeans and get on the sideline.

The affair is going to be a corker, and you can bet your top piece on that. We have large quantities of revenge coming to us while the V. M. I. gentlemen are dead set on repeating that Lynchburg stunt of last year.

As to doping out the lineup—well Coach himself is worried over that about as much as some of the hopefuls on the squad. There are two probable combinations. One is Winston and Venable ends, Garrett and Spain-hour tackles. Thompson and McLain guards, Brown center, Belk, Porter, Wakly and Ritch backfield. The other is Young and Applewhite ends, Ross and Abernethy, tackles, Parker and Stephens guards, Brown center. John Tillett, Ruffin, Williams and Porter or Spencer backfield. Either one of these bunches may start the ball rolling. Its a sure bet that nearly all these gentlemen will get on the firing line before the last whistle toots.

The officials will be "Bob" Williams University of Virginia, referee; John Parker, Carolina center 1905, umpire; Roach Stewart another, old Carolina player, field judge.

Don't try to rumpage over the field. Keep on our side of the fence and every body will be happy.

We are going to cop the game of course but you had better keep your coin in your pocket.

There were a number of mixups throughout the country this week. Harvard and Yale won their openers Carlisle bagged another game. Penn walloped Dickinson 18-0. Evidently Penn has improved since the Ursinus operation.

Washington and Lee opens with Roanoke College today. That will give us some sort of a line on that bunch. Their coach Dr. Pollard, one time of the University of Alabama, is one of the craftiest footballists in the country.

SCHEDULE OF CLASS GAMES

The class football teams have begun practice and a schedule of games has been arranged. The junior and freshman teams are out every afternoon on the class athletic field running through signals and trying to develop a punter. The sophomores are about ready to begin. The schedule for the class games are as follows:

Juniors vs Sophomores, Oct. 14
Seniors " Freshmen, " 21
Juniors " Freshmen, " 28
Seniors " Sophomores Nov. 4
Seniors " Juniors " 11
Sophomores " Freshmen " 18

"DRAGGERS" TAKE NOTICE

The editors of the Yackety Yack have placed "drag" boxes at convenient places on the campus. It is hoped that the students will take advantage of these boxes, and aid the humor committee in securing "drags". The editors are determined to get out the best Yackety Yack that has yet been issued, which is a good deal to say, but they realize that they are powerless without the co-operation of the students. If you know any humorous stories of college life, or have heard a witty epigram, or some hit at somebody, write it on a slip of paper and poke it into a drag box, or hand it to James W. Morris, Chairman of the humor committee, or one of his assistants, K. R. Ellington, W. M. Parsley, Bob Hanes, R. H. Parker, Cy Thompson, or A. H. Graham. A free Yackety Yack will be given for any ten "drags" accepted or for a sketch or poem that is accepted. This is a liberal proposition, and the managers should be relieved of a good many annuals through it. Don't forget to sign your name to your "drag" so that it may be counted for you.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Methodists of Chapel Hill are planning for a great day next Sunday Oct. 2nd. Dr. Edwin Mims who has recently taken up his work in the English Department of the University, will deliver an address at the 11 o'clock hour on the subject, "Pioneer Methodism." At the 7:30 P. M. service Prof. H. H. Williams and Dr. Chas. Lee Raper, will deliver addresses. Prof. Williams will discuss the "Principles of Methodism." Dr. Raper's subject will be announced later. At the morning service it is especially requested that every Methodist student in the University, and all Methodist in Chapel Hill and vicinity be present. At the evening service it is especially urged that every Methodist man in Chapel Hill, and every Methodist student in the University, whether he is a communicant or not, hear these men. While the subjects to be discussed are most interesting to Methodists, we extend a cordial welcome to everybody.

W. R. Royall, Pastor.
