VARSITY LOSES TO CATHOLICS

BY A SCORE OF 12-0 GEORGETOWN "MARCHES TOWARD SOUTHERN CHAMPIONSHIP"

Not an Easy Victory However. Carolinians Deserving Special Mention for Their Work Are Brown, Tillett, Winston, and Porter

"Carolina's beef and brawn failed to stop Georgetown's march toward the Southern championship on the hill-top gridiron yesterday afternoon, the Blue and Gray wiping out the defeat of last year by scoring a touchdown in the first period of play, Walsh following this up later on by two beautiful drop kicks from the field, making Georgetown's sum total for the afternoon 12 points, while the Tar Heels were unable to register."

So much for our friend, the Washington Post. Georgetown's touchdown was due to a piece of mighty poor judgment by Willie Belk. It happened in the first quarter. The Catholics tried to kick a goal from our 40 yard line. It went wide and rolled across our goal line. Instead of holding the oval for a touchback and booting it from the 25 yard line, Belk ran it back. Tackled 20 yards out he dropped the ball and a Hill Topper fell on it. Walsh and Dunn then plunged through to the one foot mark. Fullback Ulyman went over for the count. Wymard kicked goal.

Walsh got in his first field goal in the third period, from the 30 yard line. The second came in the final quarter and was from the 35 yard mark.

The Catholics deserved their victory. Their team work was of the machine variety. Their fighting spirit was good. The whole team was in the game every minute of play. Barvicello, Walsh, Dunn and Wymard were the stars.

Our bunch deserved to lose. Their team work was mighty loose—especially as regards interference. Their spirit—well, the majority lacked it. Once in a while they would show a flash of real football, but a fumble would follow and it was all off.

There were several, though, who played jam up ball, but they couldn't do it all. Brown had plenty of ginger, and so did "Tsing" Tillett. Bob Winston put up a sharp defensive game and got down under punts in fine style. Old "Boney" Porter, however, was the chief occupant of our part of the limelight. He fought like a fiend from start to finish. He ran some real interference and also tore off a number of mighty good gam's. His fierce tackling would have brought a rah! rah! from Walter Camp.

FRESHMEN WIN EASY VICTORY

Some Promising Material Shows Up in 1914 Outfit. High School Boys Unable to Cross the Line

The freshmen ran all over the Binghamites from Mebane, Saturday. They got five touchdowns and safety for 30 points.

The first year gentlemen scored in each quarter. They put over their first touchdown in the first 36 seconds of play. The second came in the first 10 seconds of the second period. They finished the period by hanging on to a safety. Another touchdown came in the third section and two in the fourth.

1914 has a nice outfit—well balanced all around. Worth, Blackmer, Jones, Clark and Hanes look especially good. Worth's booting was on a par with what the Varsity has been getting off. The fourteens will give somebody a good race for the class bunting.

The Mebane bunch is punky. They showed little knowledge of the new or old rules. Ralph, W. at quarter was fair.

Dr. Ruffin Goes to Washington

The following announcement has been made to his many Charlotte friends in a neatly printed card:

"Mr. Thomas Ruffin announces his retirement from the law faculty of the University of North Carolina and the opening of an office for the general practice of law at rooms 1 and 2 Federal building, Washington, D. C. Telephone Main 7305."

Mr. Ruffin was a member of the late firm of Ruffin and Preston in this city, and was held in high esteem by the legal fraternity of Charlotte. His connection with the law department of the University of North Carolina has given him a fine standing in North Carolina.—Charlotte Observer.

Dance in Zeta Psi Hall

The younger unmarried men of the Faculty gave a very enjoyable dance on Saturday evening in the Zeta Psi Hall, complimentary to the young ladies of the village. The dance was lead by Mr. J. MacCauley Costner, assisted by Mr. Hickerson. Music for the occasion was furnished by three members of the college orchestra. Besides the stags, there were about twelve couples that participated.

field—Walsh (2.) Referee—Dr. Larkin of Georgetown. Umpire—Mr. Armstrong of Yale. Field judge—Mr. Givens of Georgetown. Head linesman—Mr. Stewart of North Carolina. Assistants—Dr. Hudson and Mr. Spainhour. Timers—Mr. Givens and Mr. Williams. Time of quarters—12 minutes each. Final score—Georgetown, 12; North Carolina, 0.

BIBLE STUDY CONFERENCE AT RALEIGH

Many Good Speakers Among Whom Were Dr. Moore of Richmond Seminary and Dr. Mitchell of S. C. University

The North Carolina Students' Annual Bible Institute, which met with A. & M. College, at Raleigh, October 28 to 30th, was deemed one of the very best ever held in the State. There were over one hundred delegates in attendance upon the institute, representing the various schools and colleges of North Carolina. Among the schools and colleges represented were the following: A. & M., the University, Wake Forest, Davidson, Elon, Guilford, Warrenton High School, Trinity, Bingham of Mebane, Buie's Creek, Oak Ridge and Trinity Park High School.

The institute was opened Friday night with a strong address on the "Bible," by Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., President of Union Theological Seminary, of Richmond. Saturday was taken up with the discussions of methods and problems of Bible study in the colleges and high schools. Mr. Willis, Student Secretary of the Charleston, S. C., Y. M. C. A. work, conducted a discussion on Bible study in general. He was followed by Mr. Hall, Secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., who made a short talk on "Methods of Maintaining Interest in Bible Study." Mr. C. G. Hounshell, missionary to Korea, closed the morning session with a missionary address. In the afternoon Messrs. Willis and Bergthold gave short talks on "Student Evangelism" and "Spring Training of Leaders."

The A. & M. Athletic Association gave the delegates free tickets to football game, where they marched in a body to cheer for A. & M. At eight o'clock the delegates gathered in the college chapel to find a delightful banquet prepared by the ladies of West Raleigh. Dr. Hill, President of A. & M. College, acted as toastmaster, and several gentlemen responded appropriately.

The institute was favored with two strong addresses Sunday from Dr. C. S. Mitchell, President of the University of South Carolina, and Rev. H. M. North, of Raleigh. After hearing the reports of the various committees, the institute was closed Sunday night by singing "Blest Be the That Binds."

The University was well represented at the institute, nineteen delegates being in attendance—the largest delegation of any college. And since returning the men have been talking of the good times they had, of the cordial welcome which A. & M. College gave them, and of the generous hospitality of the people of Raleigh, who entertained them and made their visit so pleasant.

Attention County Clubs

The County Clubs are requested to report the names of their officers at once either to Mr. Cy Thompson or Dr. W. S. Bernard, as it is desired to publish a full list of these in a special issue of THE TAR HEEL.

Only about ten Seniors have had Yackety Yack pictures made. Remember this work has to be done by Nov. 10th. If you get left out it is up to you. We have warned you.

Committee.

Those who took prizes on Friday and Monday were: Sears, 100 dash; Hoffman, both the mile and half mile race; Llorens, the two mile race; Parsley, the pole vault. The silver medals, which will be presented to these men, are given by Robert Bridgers, a star football and track man of the class of '08. Besides these medals there are two other valuable prizes offered, as previously announced, by the merchants of Chapel Hill for the men making the greatest and the second greatest number of points. The first prize, an $8.00 sweater, goes to Hoffman, who took twenty points; the second, a $4.00 pair of track shoes, was won by Capt. Parsley, who came second with thirteen points.

Another important event for track men, which will come off some time between Thanksgiving and Christmas, will be the cross country road race of four or five miles. Prizes will be given to those winning first, second, third and fourth places. Coach Cartmell wishes to know as soon as possible who will enter for this race.

Notice to Debaters

Every man who intends to enter for one of the spring debates—with Georgia or Virginia—is requested to select a query that he would be willing to debate and to turn in this query, sealed, to the secretary of the Debaters' Union, Mr. C. E. McIntosh. All queries should be turned in this week.

If you want to save $35.00 on a typewriter, talk to Cy. Thompson about the ROYAL.
