Owing to the large number of delegates returning from the Bible Study conference which was held in Raleigh the last of the week, the Chapel Hill train was at University Station on Sunday afternoon to meet the Raleigh train. The thing worthy of note was the fact that the "Limited" left immediately after the exchange of passengers, arriving at the Hill before six o'clock.

Miss Noble Entertains Party

Miss Alice Noble entertained at her home on Pittsboro street on Thursday evening last, a number of young people of the college and town. The party was given in honor of Miss Billie Moses, who is visiting her sister Mrs. E. K. Graham. The game of the evening was a guessing contest with famous authors. Together with the guest's prize there were three prizes given. Miss Cantey Venable winning the ladies' prize, presented it to Miss Moses. Mr. Charles Venable won the gentleman's prize, which he presented to his partner Miss Lucy Harris. Refreshments were served during the latter part of the evening.
