

Sportograms

The usual matinee will be pulled off in the chapel this afternoon, but here's hoping the ticker doesn't give us the usual old thing. We would like mighty well to hear the old bell booming about 5 p. m. Even a drawn battle would call for that.

The team departed for Richmond yesterday morning. Coach carried twenty-one men—Winston, Garrett, Thompson, Brown, Parker, Abernethy, Venable, "Tiny" Tillet, Porter, Ruffin, Calmes, Applewhite, Young, Spainhour, Belk, Chambers, Stevens, Crutchfield, Small, Pember and Hasty.

Virginia Tech has lost but one game—to Navy, 3-0. However, the Blackburg bunch is hardly as classy as last year's. E. R. Hodgson's 60 yards toe and Luttrell and Hicks, their great ends, are no longer with them. These gentlemen were mainly responsible for our defeat last year. Our fellows couldn't handle Hodgson's punts and Luttrell and Hicks raced down under them in fine style.

Now, if the boys will only put up the game this afternoon, they have shown flashes of at various times, we have a mighty good show of pulling down the wire. Possibly they will. At any rate, we know they have it in them.

Work on the field this week has been slightly encouraging. We might term loose a spiel about it—but today's affair will show up everything.

Outside of our own the most interesting game for us today is the Virginia-Carlisle mixup in Washington. Both depend on speed and it should be a mighty fight all the way through. Its almost a shake of the bag between the two, but we would put our loose change on the Redskins.
