Announcement

A good deal of interest is being shown in the Sunday afternoon Negro Problem Study. It is desired that as many as can will attend this class. The question is one which brings forth much discussion and the meeting is lively from start to finish. Only about forty-five minutes, from 5 to 5:45, is consumed with the meeting.

Y. M. C. A. to Observe Week of Prayer

and Sunday, Special Evangelistic Day for all lands.

This week of prayer will be observed by the Young Men's Christian Association here in the University, beginning Sunday night at 6:45 and meeting at this time each night throughout the week, for fifteen or twenty minutes of real intercession. At the Tuesday night service, and Thursday night prayer meeting, topics of prayer will be discussed.

Every man in the University who is interested in the spiritual welfare of young men, is cordially invited to attend these short sessions each night, and help make the season a genuine week of prayer for men and men's organization.

It was rumored around on the campus Tuesday night and Wednesday that "Sheriff" Suggs had been elected constable of Chapel Hill. This was, however, a mistake. Mr. Suggs stated in an interview that his name was run for magistrate on the Republican ticket, and that while he was not elected yet, that he led his ticket. Mr. Suggs further stated that his name was run entirely against his will, but that at some future date he intends to get things in shape and make a run for that position.
