CAROLINA LOSES TO VIRGINIA

TAR HEELS PUT UP A MAGNIFICENT FIGHT, BUT LOSE BY SCORE OF 7--0

The Result of the Game in Doubt Until the End. Immense Crowd Witnesses the Game. Carolina Cheering Good

Virginia again wins from us by a small score in one of the hardest fights ever seen in the Broad Street Park at Richmond. The weather was ideal and the cheering thousands of loyal supporters with their profuse array of college colors made a pleasing picture.

Both teams were strong on the defense and weak on offense. Carolina had a bit the best of it on weight, but Virginia made up for this in speed.

The punting of Bowen and the magnificent running of Todd stand out in the limelight for Virginia.

For Carolina we must say that every man was there, and we who saw the game have only praise for the men who lost but were not licked. The game was not brilliant or spectacular at any time except when Todd caught up a fumbled punt and dashed 70 yards for a touchdown. The only other score of the game was made when Bowen kicked over our goal line, Belk touching the ball in fair ground and then touched it back for a safety.

C.'s goal; he touches back and referee rules it is a safety.

N. C. scrimmages from 25 yard line. Winston gains 10 off tackle. Belk kicks to Virginia's 45 yard line. Time up; end of first half. Score: Virginia 2, N. C. 0.

Y. M. C. A. ADDRESS BY DR. SMITH

Dr. Smith Talks at Tuesday Night Meeting about "The Call to the Ministry"

Last Tuesday night Rev. Dr. Smith, at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, made an interesting talk on "The Call to the Ministry." Dr. Smith said that a person, in order to have a call to the ministry, must have a realization of the needs of humanity and a heart responsive to those needs. He said, also, that a candidate for the ministry should be free from any serious physical infirmity, and that he should be under no responsibility to support any one outside of his immediate family. The work of a minister calls for abundant preparation. A liberal knowledge of philosophy and theology is essential; and a general knowledge of many other branches of study, such as English, history and the classics, is necessary.

Dr. Smith used many appropriate illustrations in developing his talk. He spoke interestingly of his own call to the ministry. He said that when he first thought of becoming a minister the idea was rather unpleasant to him, but on thinking it over he could not resist the call. He spoke of the preparation that Moses received for his work as a minister and leader of the Hebrews. After receiving the best education that could be had at his time, Moses spent one-third of his life in the wilderness almost alone in meditation, as a further preparation for his mission.

Garrett recovers; Winston makes 6 on fake kick; Belk kicks 40 yds to Grant, who returns to N. C.'s 40 yd line. Va. gains 15 yds on forward pass. Todd loses 5; Grant fails attempted field goal. Ball is scrimmaged from 25 yd line; Belk kicks 35 yds to midfield; Todd is downed in his tracks. Hasty succeeds Applewhite, who is hurt; Bowen gains 10 yds on fake kick, Hasty makes good tackle and the game is over.

Frank Graham Speaks to Students

Carolina's final mass meeting before the big game was a splendid exhibition of true Carolina spirit. While not having the usual amount of noise and hullabaloo, the meeting was pervaded with a profound determination by the students to stand behind the team.

College spirit flowed high, and when Frank Graham walked into the hall, unexpected to all, a climax of good feeling was reached, and a storm of applause that would put to shame a small thunder cloud was a worthy tribute to the man and to the cause in which all were so interested.

Frank Graham's speech, though short, was one of the most touching appeals to true Tar Heels that has ever been made in Chapel Hill. His tribute to the student body, to the University and to North Carolina thrilled the heart of every hearer and made stronger the determination of Carolina men in the present struggle.

Sheriff Suggs was called on to make a speech, and he responded with a short talk about the team. The yells were practiced and the meeting was over. It was the kind of meeting that makes every student glad that he is a University man and glad that he is a Tar Heel.
