

Local and Personal

W. L. Cooper, Jr., spent Thanksgiving at his home in Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Barnes, of Elon College, attended the land sale here Thursday.

Rev. W. R. Royall will preach his last sermon before leaving Chapel Hill on Sunday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. K. P. Battle, Jr., of Raleigh, spent Thanksgiving here with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. K. P. Battle.

Professor P. H. Daggett, who has been confined in the infirmary for a few days with an attack of grippe, is now able to be out again.

On the excursion train which left here for Richmond on Wednesday night, there was one coach crowded beyond seating capacity with negroes.

Don't forget the news box in the hall of the Alumni building. If you know of any news item you would like published in the TAR HEEL, write it and deposit it in the news box.

Misses A. L. and Eva Kelly, of Clarkton, N. C., the latter of whom is a student at Peace Institute, spent Thursday here as the guest of their brother, D. G. Kelly, '14.

By the large number who attended the report in the chapel on Thursday afternoon it did not seem, after all, that the whole college had betaken itself to Richmond.

Miss Frances McIntosh has been the guest of her brother, Mr. C. E. McIntosh, at Mrs. Gattis', since Thursday morning. Miss McIntosh is teaching at Burlington, N. C.

Professor Collier Cobb, E. K. Graham and J. W. Bell were purchasers of lots, on Thursday, at the auctioneering of the new residential district on Henderson street, beyond G. C. Pickard & Son's livery stables.

Walter Stokes, '13, has returned from a ten days' trip to Detroit, Mich., where he and Mr. Bennett H. Perry, of Henderson, went as delegates from the University of North Carolina Chapter, to the national convention of the D. K. E. Fraternity. Mr. Stokes says that there were about 200 delegates at the convention, representing all the colleges in the United States and two in Canada.

V. M. I. Closes Until January.

Owing to an epidemic of pink eye and to several cases of typhoid fever, supposed to be due to some local cause, the Virginia Military Institute dismissed its students, on furlough, November 21. The institute will remain closed until Wednesday, January 4.

Lost!

A lady's medallion belt buckle. Lady's face hand painted. Clasp on back. Finder return to I. H. Hughes, No. 12 South.

WHEN YOU ARE IT!

When the mail-carrier delivers a double-enveloped bit of engraved stationery that reads: "Mr. and Mrs. Blank request your presence at the marriage ceremony of their daughter," etc.

Then, if you wish a very handsome present we have it; if you wish an inexpensive piece of China, Cutglass or Silver, we have selected fifty pieces which we will sell for $2.50 each, some choice pieces costing nearly twice that much. You can select them from our right-hand window. Any piece would be appreciated by a bride.
