Eleven members of the victorious Andover football team are planning to enter Yale.

The University of Missouri has a prize cow, "Josephine," which gives thirty-two quarts of milk daily.

Harvard has instituted a system under which every freshman has a senior appointed for his advisor.

Statistics record that in 1908 there were 464 universities, colleges and technical schools in the United States.—Ex.

Strange that Raleigh cannot have some of these big annual games. This thing of always going to Virginia for everything does not agree with us.—Raleigh Evening Times.

The Harvard alumni have eighty-two clubs, including the Associated Harvard Clubs, the New England Federation of Harvard Clubs, a Harvard Club in Berlin and one in Italy.

To protect graduates from poor investments after they leave college, the University of Michigan is giving a special course in "Gold Bricks" and other spurious metal.

When you see a bashful lover,
Blushing crimson in the face,
Every time he takes his watch out
There's a woman in the case.
—Harvard Lampoon.

"Hello" buttons have been given out at Syracuse. Every student who wears one must say "Hello" to his fellow students for two weeks afterwards. This was done to encourage friendship among the students.

Columbia students are objecting to a university rule which forbids smoking in any of the lecture rooms or hallways of the buildings on the campus with the exception of the two dormitories.

Of the 16,216 names recorded in "Who's Who in America" 56 per cent. are college graduates, 15 per cent college men, 12 per cent academy and normal men, 3.48 per cent high school graduates, and only one-fifth of one per cent self-taught men.

The students at the University of Colorado are subjected to quite a unique method of punishment for failure in their work. Those who fall below the safety lines in their college courses must wear small, blue caps. Doubtless the blue caps are stylish, as well as popular.—Texas, U. of Tex.

By the action of the faculty at its meeting last Monday the requisite thesis for a baccalaureate degree will, after this year, be a thing of the past. Students generally hail this decree with delight, but the seniors wear a serious countenance and wonder what they have done that they should be held to the old rule.—Utah Chronicle.

Nine rules of traditional conduct, which the Students' Council asks all first year men to observe, have been printed on small cards and are being placed in the hands of Michigan's latest arrivals.

- They are as follows:
1. Wear the freshman cap or toque the entire year.
 2. Never smoke a pipe on the campus.
 3. Never wear prep-school insignia.
 4. Get all prep-school pins out of sight.
 5. Never sit on the senior benches.
 6. Always allow a man of a higher class to precede you through a door.
 7. Attend all mass meetings.
 8. Learn the "Yellow and the Blue" at once.
 9. Don't forget the fact that you are a freshman.—Michigan Daily.

A. T. O. House-Warming

On last Saturday evening, at their new chapter house on Franklin street, the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity entertained at a house warming. Besides the members of the A. T. O. Fraternity, there were representatives of each of the other fraternities present. Together with the ladies of the town, there were a number of out of town ladies, who added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

This hall is the newest and one of the prettiest on the Hill. The large dance hall, which occupies one-half of the first floor of the building, is finished off in a very picturesque club room style.
