FIVE RECEIVE N. C. MONOGRAM

ABERNETHY, APPLEWHITE, CALMES, PARKER, AND YOUNG WIN THIS HONOR

Stars Awarded to Old Men on Team, Sweater to E. C. McLean. Now Thirty-two Wearers of N. C. at the University

The N. C. club met Tuesday night for the purpose of awarding sweaters to the men who made the varsity football team this year for the first time. There were five of these men whom the club deemed worthy of wearing the N. C. They were: Abernethy, Applewhite, Calmes, Parker, and Young. To the old men who made the team again this year the club awarded stars.

Although E. C. McLean did not make the team, yet the N. C. club decided that he deserved some reward because he has served faithfully on the scrubs for the entire four years that he has been in college. The club therefore voted to award him a plain sweater, without the N. C. monogram, as a recognition of his good work.

These five new N. C. men make the total number of the letter men now in college amount to thirty-two.

About the Yackety Yack.

The 1909 Yackety Yack was among America's ten best college annuals and the 1910 book is generally considered even a better one. The Yackety Yack for 1911 will be the best ever published. To begin with, it is to be a more expensive book than any of its predecessors. It will be much more elegantly and expensively bound. It will have more athletic and generally interesting local paragraphs. It will have more colored work than ever before by about $300 worth, part of which will be of a grade not usually seen in college annuals. It will be a book you can justly be proud of.

You want ONE Yackety Yack, of course—but how many more do you want? You must subscribe for as many as you want, and do it NOW—for no more books will be ordered than we have signed subscriptions for. We do not intend to lose as past managers have, by ordering more books than are subscribed for in an indefinite hope that maybe somebody will want more than ordered.

So remember—when delivery time comes you cannot have more books than you have ordered. Think it over and provide for the ever fateful springtime when the ladies are so predominant. THE BUSINESS MANAGERS.

The Eastern Eleven

The New York Sun gives the following, all eastern elevens, for 1910:

First Team—Kilpatrick, Yale, and L. Smith, Harvard ends; Scully, Yale, and McKay, Harvard, tackles; Fisher, Harvard, Brown, Navy, guards; Cozens, Pennsylvania, center; Sprackling, Brown, quarterback; Wendell, Harvard, and McKay, Brown, halfbacks; Mercer, Pennsylvania, fullback.

Second Team—Daly, Dartmouth, and Gilchrist, Navy, ends; Smith, Brown, and Withington, Harvard, tackles; Wier, Army, and Minot, Harvard, guards; Morris, Yale, center; Howe, Yale, quarterback; Kistler, Yale, and Ramsdell, Trinity, halfbacks; Hart, Princeton, fullback.

TO PUBLISH COLLEGE SONGS

Movement by Y. M. C. A. Workers to Get Out a Book of Songs for Southern Institutions

The following communication has been received, at the University, from a member of the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations:

You will doubtless recall that, last year, there was a movement on foot for publishing a book of songs for the Southern institutions. When we first started agitating this matter, there was practically no college in the South that had songs of both original words and original music. However, during the year, a number of colleges determined to have their own songs, with original music, and had contests offering prizes for the best song and for the best music. As a result, we now have some thirty-five splendid songs, with original music, ready to go into this book. We should like to have, at least, a hundred different institutions represented in this song book if possible. The conditions of admitting any college into the book are as follows:

1. The words must be original.
 2. These words must be set to original music, not to some old tune.
 3. The college agrees to advance the money necessary for the making of the plate for the printing of its own song, for which money books will be sent to the college as soon as these books are out of press. The plate for an ordinary song will cost about $5.
- Your institution can't afford not to have a part in such a great intercollegiate movement as this, and I trust you will take this matter up with your students at once and see that we have a song from your school as soon as possible.

Athletics at Tulane

New Orleans, Nov. 26.—On the grounds, it is stated, that students of the University have not heeded his appeals to participate in college athletics as they should, President Craighead has announced that hereafter Tulane will enjoy the taste of compulsory athletics. Every freshman and sophomore at the University will be compelled to take a certain amount of exercise prescribed by the faculty. Outdoor work will constitute the greater part of the physical requirements.—Charlotte Observer.

New Book by Dr. Henderson

Announcement has been made of the publication of "Interpreters of Life," a book by Dr. Archibald Henderson, consisting of a number of essays on subjects of present day literature. The publisher is Mitchell Kinnerley, of New York.

To Elect Student Representative

According to a resolution passed by the student body last spring, one representative is to be chosen by the student body at large to serve on the Student Council. This action of the student body has been overlooked until recently, and this representative of the study body at large has not been chosen. At the chapel Friday morning nominations for that position will be made, and the nominees will be voted on next Monday morning at the chapel, a plurality vote determining the election.

PROSECUTION BY U. N. C. LAWYERS

An Interesting Case Disposed of in Moot Court—Judge Imposes Heavy Fine

Last Saturday night the Moot Court held its regular weekly session. The case that held the attention of the court was that of Price vs. the Orange County Fair Co. It seems that Price was an artist and had sent a picture to the fair for exhibition. In some way this picture was lost; so Price sued the company for the value of the picture. The company contended that they had shipped it back to him by express; they could not, however, show an express receipt for the shipment.

The plaintiff was represented by Messrs. Currie, Store and Lynch; while Messrs. Bond, Strange and McNairy defended the Fair Company. Both sides put up extremely able arguments; McNairy for defence, however, was especially worthy of mention.

Judge P. D. Winston, after hearing the evidence in the case and the arguments of the various attorneys, rendered his decision in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of five hundred dollars. It has not yet been learned whether or not the company will appeal.

Class Tennis Progresses

The class tennis tournament continues to be played off at irregular intervals. Almost all the doubles have been played and the teams are at present occupied with the singles. In singles the freshmen and law split even. Smith defeated McLean 7-5, 7-5; Lindsay defeated Baume 5-7, 6-2, 6-3. The tournament will probably be finished this week. From the present outlook the seniors have the best chance for the championship.

Junior Class Pins Here

The Junior class pins have arrived and are being delivered. The pins were made this year by Bastian Bros. Co., of Rochester, N. Y., whose originality of design and perfect workmanship have given 1912 a very attractive pin.

Faculty Members Abroad

There appeared last week, in the Paris edition of the New York Herald, quite a lengthy account of the installation of the "exchange" professor, Dr. Hugo Muensterberg, of Harvard University, and the "Roosevelt" professor, Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of Virginia. Dr. Smith spoke on "Some Aspects of American Literature." Among the distinguished visitors on this occasion, besides members of the royal household, and representatives of the foreign embassies at Berlin, there appears the names of Mrs. C. Alphonso Smith, Professor and Mrs. W. D. Toy and Professor A. S. Wheeler.

About thirty students assembled in Gerrard Hall Monday afternoon to hear the new play of the Dramatic Club read by Professor McKie. The play is Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer". It will be presented sometime in February.

Lost—Lady's Gold Medal, dated 1879. Finder return to the TAR HEEL for reward.

FRESHMEN HAVE BIG DEBATE

TWENTY-FIVE FIRST YEAR MEN OF THE DI SOCIETY ENGAGE IN THE CONTEST

Athletic Fee Discussed. Eight Men Selected Who Will Appear in Final Contest for Prize Saturday Night

The annual freshman debate in the Dialectic Society will be held next Saturday night. The preliminaries have been on this week and some good debating material has been in evidence. About twenty-five men entered the final preliminaries, from which eight were selected for the final contest for the freshman prize.

The question is: Resolved, That a two dollar athletic fee should be paid at the bursar's office, at the fall term registration, for the support of athletics.

The affirmative held forth Monday night; the successful candidates were J. T. Pritchette, L. R. Johnson, J. P. Burke and J. E. Holmes.

From the negative, Tuesday night, the following men were chosen: G. H. Ward, M. R. Dunnegan, J. A. Holmes, and R. L. Lasley.
