

Local and Personal

Prof. M. C. S. Noble went to Wilmington Thursday.

John W. Umstead, 1910, has been on the Hill for the past few days.

Prof. Collier Cobb went to Winston Thursday to deliver an address.

C. K. Burgess has gone to Greensboro to have his eyes treated.

Dr. W. T. Royster, of Raleigh, is in town visiting his son, Dr. J. F. Royster, of the English Department.

Secretary E. P. Hall and Cy Thompson went to Raleigh Saturday morning.

J. A. Clark, of the Freshman Class, has been obliged to withdraw from college because of the failure of his eyes.

C. K. Burgess made a very interesting talk on "Habit," in the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. All who were present enjoyed the talk very much.

W. N. Alford, '14, who has been in the infirmary for several days with a bad case of inflammatory rheumatism, is some better, and on Friday morning was taken to his home at Rowland.

Rev. W. R. Royall returned Monday from Elizabeth City, where he attended the Eastern N. C. Methodist Conference. He was appointed to the charge at Henderson and left Friday to fill the pulpit there on Sunday.

A considerable improvement has been made in the walk in front of the library; in fact it has been made a new walk; straightened and raised, so that the water cannot settle in it as before, causing mud.

It has been announced that the gymnasium baths will be put in repair during the holidays. There has been much complaint among the students, because only about three of the shower baths will furnish warm water at one time.

Mr. Gus Palmer delivered a stereopticon lecture on Volcanoes, last night, before the Hawfield High School, Mebane. Mr. Palmer says he told the good people of Mebane a whole lot of things about volcanoes they had never heard before. He also reports a great time—admirable girls, spare ribs, chicken, etc.

Mr. Holladay will not be here Saturday to take pictures, but will be on the Hill, Wednesday, the 14th, for the last day's work. It will, therefore, be necessary for all seniors and all groups who wish to have pictures taken for the Yackety Yack—if they have not already done so—it will be necessary for them to have the pictures taken on next Wednesday.

At Other Colleges

Mr. John R. Mott was at the University of Virginia last week, where he gave addresses on Russian Student Life. In his remarks Mr. Mott said that since his last visit at the University he had been in five continents and many islands, visiting 3,000 colleges and institutions of learning, and that nowhere had he been so struck by the character of the students as in Russia. Pres. Alderman introduced Mr. Mott as the "ambassador to us from the land of honor, character and high ideals."

Of the fourteen men of the football varsity at the University of Virginia who were awarded V's this year, nine men receive their V's for the first time.

As a result of a recent fire in one of the buildings of the University of Alabama, the students have formed a voluntary fire department.

It is a peculiar coincidence that both V. M. I. and W. and L., situated in Lexington, Va., have closed until after Christmas. V. M. I. because of pink eye, W. and L. because of typhoid fever.

At the University of Alabama, statistics show that more men were hurt this season under the new football rules than heretofore.
