

Local and Personal

Prof. P. H. Daggett, with wife and young son, returned to the Hill yesterday.

The Pickwick is having a large attendance of late. Supper at six, mail at seven or eight, Pickwick sandwiched between.

The junior class met Friday and decided to postpone the election of managers of the Junior Prom and commencement marshals until after Christmas.

Profs. M. C. S. Noble and N. W. Walker and Dr. Chase left for Winston Thursday afternoon, to attend the meeting of county superintendents and principals of high schools of North Carolina.

Dr. L. R. Wilson spent Thursday at Greensboro, in attendance upon the meeting of the Farmers' Union of North Carolina, explaining the work of the N. C. Library Commission, and proposing a plan of library extension through a system of traveling libraries.

Dr. Hamilton to Attend Historical Society

Dr. J. G. de R. Hamilton will attend the meeting of the American Historical Society, which meets in Indianapolis on Dec. 27th to 30th.

Prof. Walker to Attend Educational Association

The annual session of the Southern Educational Association will be held in Chattanooga, Tenn., on December 28th and 29th. Prof. N. W. Walker, chairman of the department of Secondary Education in that organization, will be in attendance.

Prof. Viles Gives Illustrated Lecture

Professor Viles delivered an illustrated lecture at the meeting Thursday night of the Geological Seminary on the subject of mountain climbing in the Alps. Professor Viles held the close attention of his audience from first to last by his recital of thrilling episodes of Alpine climbing, embellishing his lecture with a few personal anecdotes of his own experiences while making the perilous ascents.

Barnett Sends Greetings

The friends of Mr. E. E. Barnett, missionary to China and former Secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., will be glad to know that he and Mrs. Barnett have landed safely, after a four weeks' voyage across the ocean. Mr. Barnett writes interestingly of his new experiences, of the peculiar customs of the people and of the outlook of his new field of labor. For several months he will be stationed at Shanghai, studying the language and getting prepared for his work at Hangchow. The nature of his work at Hangchow will be similar to his work at the University, that is, Secretary of the Hangchow Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Barnett sends greetings and best regards to both faculty and student body.

The libraries at Yale contain some 600,000 volumes.

The Aero Club at the University of Chicago expects to do some flying this spring.

The Yale faculty consists this year of 185 members. There have been 57 changes in the past year.

Seventeen students at the University of Chicago will canvass Hyde Park for the purpose of securing funds to help furnish the poor with clothing during the winter.

Football coaches at Kansas adopted the honor system with their football team.

A Harvard club has been established at Chicago to welcome all Harvard men who find themselves in the city.

There are only thirty students from west of the Mississippi in this year's freshman class at Yale.

Out of 16 former University of Pennsylvania stars only two speak favorably of the new football rules. The new plays are considered to be more dangerous than the old.

The faculty of Tulane University is considering abolishing inter-collegiate football. The students, in mass meeting, voiced their protests against the movement.

The dean of women at Northwestern made a talk to the co-eds, condemning "Howling Co-Education." She went on record as being opposed to rooting by the co-eds at football games.

The penalty imposed at Yale for reading or studying in chapel is five marks. An effort is being made to entirely stamp out the practice of studying during service.
