AMUSEMENTS

Since the announcement that the famous "Roney Boys" are to give a concert in this town on February 25th, there has been unusual interest shown in the personnel of the lads who have astonished critical audiences in the largest cities with their artistic rendering of classical music. The boys seldom have more than a rudimentary knowledge of music when they are placed under Mr. Roney's instruction. They are chosen for their natural gifts of voice, ear, temperament and sympathetic susceptibility to emotions inspired by the words and music. Unremitting and exacting-rehearsals do the rest. They are taught to understand the dramatic meaning of their songs, and gain intelligent conception of them by explanation and illustration.

Rehearsals for the next season's program begin upon the company's return in the spring from their long winter tour, and not unfrequently eight or ten weeks of daily rehearsals, four to six hours a day, are given to work on the program, with vocal culture, breathing, phrasing, enunciation, physical exercises, etc. Boys require about five times as much training to accomplish the same results as do adult singers.

"Roney Boys" at General Hall Saturday, February 25th. Star Course.

The patrons of the Pickwick this week have been well pleased with the program offered. The pictures have been above the ordinary and the playing and singing of Miss Adams continues to win favor. There is an attractive program billed for tonight. The pictures will be "The Stranger" by the Kalem Company and "Old Nories' Gal" by the Melies concern. Miss Adams will sing "The Rosary."

The Semi-Weekly TAR HEEL will be sent to any address, Feb. 1 to June 1, for seventy-five cents.
