

On the Campus

Dr. C. W. Bain and Messrs Cyrus Hogue, and George Wilson have been initiated into the Order of Gimghouls.

Lost--A ladies' open face gold watch with Smith college fob attached. Finder will please notify the Tar Heel, or return to Miss Louise Wilson.

Lost--Last spring about on month before commencement, a light brownish cravenett overcoat, with yarn gloves in pockets. Finder notify the TAR HEEL for reward:

A new sport has been introduced into college--pitching horse shoes. The Horse Shoe League was formally organized last night. "Doc" Williams was chosen president and Bill Hendricks manager. All wishing to join the league should see either of these gentlemen.

The first of the spring dances will occur on Thursday and Friday nights. The Thursday night dance will be given by one of the Junior Orders and will be led by Mr. Kenneth Tanner. The Friday night dance will be a regular German Club affair. Mr. George Wilson will lead. Quite a number of young ladies from various parts of the State will attend.

Amusements

The Pickwick offers an excellent program for tonight. The pictures will be "The Bolted Door" by the Kalem Company and "A Gambler of the West" (S. & A.) The first is one of the most interesting dramas ever staged by the Kalem concern. The second is a Western story. Miss Adams will sing an old favorite, "Some Day When Dreams Come True."

Concert by Glee Club and University Orchestra, Gerrard Hall, Friday night, Feb. 17th.

"She Stoops to Conquer," University Dramatic Club, Monday night, Feb. 20th.

The coming appearance in this city of "Roney's Boys" Concert Company on Feb. 25 recalls the interesting fact that the experiences of these musical cherubs is strangely fascinating and interesting. From the executive mansion at Washington, where they received the enthusiastic admiration of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and their 500 invited guests at the now historic Christmas Concert, given by them at the White House, to the gloomy prison cells in the great penitentiaries, is a wide gulf, yet their prison audiences are no less critical and appreciative than those at the Nation's Capital.

In the past few years Mr. Roney has given concerts to over 60,000,000 unfortunate inmates of penal and other public institutions in the United States. The effect of these marvelously sweet voices upon the criminal class is described as wonderful. The audience of thieves, burglars, and murderers listens with rapt attention, many of them with tears running down their faces, and applauded with a frenzy of enthusiasm. They have several times sung in the cells of condemned prisoners awaiting the electric chair. Mr. Roney is usually allowed to take the boys along the tiers of cells and talk with the prisoners, and the gratitude they show for the pleasure brought into their monotonous lives reveals the good which lies even in such hearts as these, if it can be but reached. The prisoners often thank the boys with tears in their eyes, and give them souvenirs and presents.

"Roney Boys" at Gerrard Hall Saturday February 25th, highest priced Star course number of the season.
