Well, brethren, we've finally licked Virginia. We suppose that's soaked into your craniums by this time. It's the first time we've beaten 'em in Tar Heel territory since 1908 when Phife Fulenwider twirled us to a 2-1 win.

Both teams deserve praise for the exhibitions they put up. Both played their darndest. Old timers around Greensboro and Charlotte swore they had not seen such baseball in five years.

This outfit of ours has brought old Carolina back into her own again. They showed stuff Saturday and Monday that should make every Carolina supporter proud of 'em—knowledge of the game and plenty of grit and fight all along the line. And let me tell you, friends, they're going to come mighty near copping that third encounter whether its played in Durham, Greensboro, Charlottesville or in the environs of hell itself. The boys have the nerve—they've got the grit and the South Atlantic Championship is in sight.

Right here we pause to tip our top piece to Coach Clancey. He's the best coach we've ever put our peepers on. He worked as hard in the two big games as any man on the field. He kept the boys on edge throughout those eighteen rounds. He took that defeat hard and came back all the stronger, Monday.

Our inner garden showed up to expectations. That double play in the 4th round of the first game was a pip-pin. It won't do to try any monkey business with 'Jimmy Calmes' wing in action.

That Charlotte melee was a nerve racker for fair. Virginia refused to admit defeat until "Burr" Edwards threw out Driver in the 9th. In the 3d and 5th Pember saved the day and the rest of the time. Raymond Lee held them at bay. The winning of the affair goes to the credit of Witherington and Calmes.

Considering the miserable weather Greensboro turned out a nice audience. Charlotte did no better and with a nice sun shined day at that. People down there evidently don't appreciate real college ball. They had as soon see A. and M. or Davidson play.

The college girls of Charlotte were out in some force. Quite a number of them sported Va. colors. When Pember sprained his ankle in the 8th one of these young damsels remarked, "Oh I wish all those horrible Carolina boys would get killed." She was an Elizabeth student. She's forgiven.

Another young maiden demure from Elizabeth is reported to have said something still worse. What it was we won't say as we belong to the Y. M. C. A. even if we haven't paid our fee yet.

Our big batters did little bludgeon work during the series, but neither did Virginia's. Finlay who has been going at a 450 clip didn't get even a near hit and was up seven times. Neff got none out of eight, Carter got one out of eight trials, Douglas one out of eight, Lile one out of seven and Hume one out of six.

Faison Witherington has struck his stride. He got our only clean hit in Charlotte and did some nice pegging to boot. He looked better than Finlay.

Everybody on the expedition had a good time. "Burr" Edwards spent his spare time at Kress's. Ferd Duls got chased away from Elizabeth College. The war correspondents found people willing to hear hot air. We won't tell on the rest.

"The Lure of the Unattainable." A lot of us want what we can't get. Ask Manager McCulloch and War Correspondent Brown.
