The Georgetown cop deserves mention. Our bunch whitewashed the Hill Toppers on their own grounds—and they had walloped Yale and Penn. In the windup of the schedule the Varsity smeared themselves with honor by falling on Harry Moran, Washington and Lee's great twirler, and giving him his first walloping in college ball.

Commencement Engagements.

Dr. Edwin Mims spoke Friday night at Lenoir. He will make an address in Greensboro at the State Normal on Sunday night.
Prof. E. K. Graham delivered an address at the commencement exercises of the Wilson High School Friday.
Dr. Hamilton is to speak next Tuesday at the Fort Johnson celebration near Wilmington.

Attended Episcopal Convention.

Drs. Herty and Winston, Rev. Mr. Hogue and Prof. Patterson attended the Episcopal Convention of Diocese of North Carolina at Rocky Mount this week.

ALL SOUTH ATLANTIC TEAM

A Strong Outfit Picked From Carolina and Virginia Teams.

All South Atlantic baseball team—in the electing of this team college players in North Carolina and Virginia only were considered. Professional players on college teams were not considered. Roach Stewart and the TAR HEEL's sporting editor did the picking. They would bat in order as mentioned.

Smith, (Washington and Lee) right field. This man though a regular second sacker has had plenty of out-field experience. He is a .300 hitter.

Hasty---(Carolina) second base. Hasty is the best fielding second sacker in the South Atlantic section. His hitting is timely.

Calmes (Carolina) first base. An excellent fielder possessing a wonderful arm. He will hit over .300.

Farmer (A. and M.) left field--covers all sorts of ground. Hits well over .300.

Douglas (Virginia) shortstop. He is the best fielding shortstop in this section. Bats .300.

Edwards (Carolina) third base. He goes after and gets nearly everything that comes his way. Has all grades of fight. Has a tendency to break up games every now and then with a long hit.

Hackney (Carolina) centerfield--Hackney is the best judge of a fly ball in the South. Hits .250.

Stewart (Guilford) and Witherington (Carolina) Catchers. Stewart has a great arm and is a good hitter. Witherington also has an excellent arm and would make a good alternate for Stewart.

Twirlers---Lee (Carolina), Robertson (A. and M.) and Rixey (Virginia). These three men would form a peach of a pitching staff. Lee copped eight games this year and lost none. He has control and smoke and holds his nerve when under fire. Robertson has about everything a college moundman needs; curve, speed and control. He won seven out of nine, this season. Rixey has done wonderful work this spring. He has gotten off with two no hit affrays. His fast ball is his best asset. However, he can mix 'em up to a king's taste. Harry Moran of Washington and Lee deserves mention but his work this season hardly entitles him to a place.

Give this outfit two week's work under Clancey and it would run over any college team in the United States.
