John Cansler recently made a visit of several days to Graham.

McLeod McEachern recently spent a few days in Fayetteville.

Mrs. E. K. Graham, after visiting in Goldsboro, returned Saturday.

A. S. Oliver, med., spent the week end at his home in Selma, N. C.

Frank P. Graham, '09, was among the visitors on the Hill Saturday.

Miss Nannie Smith entertained a few friends informally Saturday night.

Frank Drew left Saturday morning to spend a few days in Asheville.

Mr. S. J. Conroy of Cullowhee visited his son, F. D. Conroy, last week.

W. C. Coughenour, Jr. made recently a short visit to his home in Salisbury.

Dr. R. H. Lewis and Mr. Perrin Busbee, of Raleigh, were on the Hill Saturday.

Dr. Raper and Dr. Lawson have both been slightly indisposed because of severe colds.

Miss Alice Noble will leave in a few days for Portsmouth, Va., where she will visit friends.

Prof. W. D. Carmichael, superintendent of the Durham City Schools, was on the Hill Saturday.

Rev. Homer Starr has been on a visit to Charlotte. While there he delivered an address before the Y. M. C. A.

S. F. Teague, '10, who is principle of the Goldsboro High School, spent Saturday and Sunday on the Hill.

Dr. Edwin Mims went to Lexington on the 8th. He attended the educational rally at the Davidson County Fair.

At a meeting of the Junior class last week it was decided to confer with the other classes in regard to standardizing class pins.

SOUTH CAROLINA MAKES FIFTH VICTIM

line. Then gains by Chambers for 8 yards, Wakeley 17, Coffin 6, Chambers 4, and by Wakeley for the remaining 3, carried the ball over. Coffin punted out to Tillett, who kicked the goal, making the score 12 to 0.

In the third quarter the South Carolinians again kicked off; this time to Small on our 30 yard line. Small advanced it to our 45 yard line. Then there followed a period of see-sawing and punting, in which Carolina gained slightly, getting the ball, shortly, on the Palmetto State's 30 yard line. From there a forward pass, Coffin to Chambers, advanced the ball to the 15 yard line. Chambers carried the ball 3 yards, an off side penalty against South Carolina added 5, Ervin 6, and Tillett the remaining 1 yard and across the goal line. Tillett kicked goal—18 to 0.

South Carolina then kicked off for the fifth and next to last time. Our men carried the ball to their 22 yard line before the end of the quarter. Then in the first of the fourth after getting it to their 10 yard line we lost the ball on downs. They punted and after a few plays we got the ball to their 27 yard line, whence "Burr" Edwards made an eminently successful drop, advancing the score to 21 to 0; where it stayed.

South Carolina put up a good, stiff game, but was simply outclassed. When they saw this though, they did not lie down and quit. So far from it they fought all the harder. Whitner, their captain and quarterback played a fine game for them.

The quarters were twelve minutes each.
