CAROLINA FALLS BEFORE VIRGINIA

The Varsity Appears Helpless in the Face of Virginia's Crushing Attack

VIRGINIA PLAYS A MAGNIFICENT GAME

Carolina Goes Completely to Pieces and the Splendid Defense Seen in Other Games is Powerless to Stop Virginia's Rush

12,000 cheering people saw the University of North Carolina go down in crushing defeat by the score of 28 to 0 last Thursday before the University of Virginia in the annual Thanksgiving Day conflict. It was a result which even the most sanguine of Virginia supporters had not expected and which left Carolina students, alumni, and friends dazed and shocked.

When Todd scored the first touchdown after twelve minutes of the fiercest and hardest kind of play, there was no doubt as to which team would be the victor. The Virginia backs smashed into the line or tore around the ends with a speed and rapidity that swept the Varsity off its feet and sent despair biting into the hearts of its supporters.

Todd, Gooch, and Walters played magnificent ball. On wide end runs, off tackle plays, and split interference, with the backs going through center, these players carried the ball down the field time and time again. Too much cannot be said of Gooch's punting. He kicked low and far to one side of the Carolina backs playing back on defense. Three times in the second quarter the ball rolled within Carolina's 15 yard line when kicked from well in Virginia territory. Virginia played a great game. The team was one of the best, of many good ones, that has represented Virginia on the gridiron.

On the other hand the Varsity went completely to pieces. The splendid defense that in every other game of the season has prevented the foes of old Carolina from crossing her goal line crumpled before Virginia's attack and seemed powerless to check the onward rush of Todd, Gooch, Walters, and Goodhue. There is nothing by which to judge the offensive strength of the team. Once in the third period Winston, Chambers, and Tillett carried the ball to Virginia's 15 yard line, but there the Orange and Blue held. The quarter ended with the ball on Carolina's 25 yard line in Virginia's possession.

The team seemed all at sea. Swept off its feet in the first few minutes of play, it never recovered. The line failed to hold and the backs failed to gain. In the second quarter the game ceased to be a game and became a rout. The team and the game were hopeless and sad disappointments.

And yet the team fought stubbornly on. In the teeth of defeat the players worked like demons. Five times they held for downs when the ball was within the 5 yard zone. With a bulldog tenacity and a splendid spirit that in victory or defeat thrill those who see it, the team fought bitterly on. At first it was with the hope of at least tying the score. Towards the last it was with the hope of at least avoiding the ignomy of a whitewash at the hands of Carolina's bitterest yet best beloved foe.

Following is the game in detail, with the line up and summary:

FIRST QUARTER

Captain Winston won the toss and chose to defend the west goal. Cook kicked off to Rich, on his twenty-yard line, who failed to return. Cook then retired, Walters taking his place. A forward pass from Winston to Tillett nearly went through, but failed, Tillett muffing. Coffin punted to Todd, in the middle of the field, and he came back ten yards. Walters, on an off-tackle play, got seven yards. Goodhue hurdled, and Virginia was penalized fifteen yards. From a fake kick formation Todd went around left end, with beautiful interference, for thirty yards. He repeated with six yards on the same play. Goodhue went into the line for first down. Another try at the line failed. Walters then carried the ball to Carolina's ten-yard line. In the shadow of the goal Goodhue fumbled on the one-foot line, and Carolina recovered the ball.

The ball was brought out five yards for Carolina to kick. Coffin kicked to Todd, who came back through a broken field twenty-five yards. Todd failed to gain. Walters carried the ball through the line for six yards. Gooch then took the oval to Carolina's five-yard-line. Todd put the oval on the one-foot line again. Another trial at the line, and no gain resulted. Walters tried Carolina's right end, but lost, and the ball went over on downs.

Coffin again kicked to Todd, who went back fifteen yards. Gooch tried left end, but no gain resulted. Todd got around the same end for eight yards. Walters went ten yards to Carolina's five-yard line. Goodhue failed to gain through the line, but Todd, on a delayed off-tackle play, was over for the first touchdown, after twelve minutes of the fiercest kind of play. Davidson kicked a difficult goal from a bad angle. Score: Virginia, 6; Carolina, 0.

Chambers kicked to Walters on his twenty-yard line, and he came back five yards. Goodhue kicked to Winston, who was caught in his tracks by Hewitt, who made a great tackle. Coffin punted to Todd, who, on pretty broken-field running, came back thirty yards. Goodhue kicked to Winston, who fumbled, and Virginia recovered the ball on the forty-yard line. Walters, around left end, got five yards. Todd failed to gain around right end. Virginia was penalized fifteen yards for holding. Gooch made a pretty on-side kick, and Virginia recovered it. Davidson on the fall. Goodhue got seven yards off right tackle. Walters picked off two yards. Goodhue made it first down. Ball on

DR. F.S. PARKER IN GERRARD HALL

Preaches the Second of the University Sermons of the Current Year

A HELPFUL AND INSPIRING DISCOURSE

On Christ as the Absolute Expression of Truth and Life Eternal: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life" Was His Text.

Dr. Franklin Parker of Trinity College preached in Gerrard Hall last Sunday morning the second of the series of University sermons for this year. The sermon was a helpful and inspiring discourse on Christ as the absolute expression of truth and the way to eternal life. Dr. Parker took his text from St. John, chapter 14, verse 6: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me." He said in substance:

"There is a marked difference between St. John and the other gospel writers. The first three narrate the outward events of Christ's life. St. John observes the outward events, meditates about them and gives to us his interpretation of them. With him we pass as it were to the inner side of Christ's life. The outward aspects of religion first challenge man's attention. But men are not content with this alone. The spirit and consciousness of the infinite and the eternal is steadily sought for. Men unceasingly try to define religion in terms of forms and theories. Christ teaches that these are only medial things. Our divine purpose is to attain to eternal life, to come to God and in order to do this we must travel by the way of Jesus Christ.

"Christ is the truth. He is unavoidable, unescapable. How comes it that this Galilean peasant, this plain simple man, has left a doctrine that has exerted such a limitless influence upon the thought and action of the world? It is because Christ is the actual reality and the absolute truth. Men seek to divide truth into various segments. Truth, however, is the law of the human intellect and cannot be divided. Christ is our way and our life because he is the absolute expression of truth. The peril of religion lies in the fact that many in searching into it are willing to stop and catch fast to some mere form before coming finally to the reality that Christ is the real and actual truth itself.

"I am the Life." Men need not new work but something to make the old inspiring and pleasant. The great need of the churches is to re-discover Christ and the great need of the individual is to get the spirit of Christ into his life. Christ is no doubtful hypothesis but the real way, the truth, and the life. He is the gleam that we should follow through life into eternity."

Cornell University is to be taken as a model for a new university in Perth, the capital of Western Australia.

TRACK TROPHY PRESENTED

The Silver Loving Cup Won at State Meet in Raleigh Last Spring Presented by Dr. J. Burton Ray

At a mass meeting of the students just before the Virginia game the silver cup, won at the State Track Meet held at Raleigh last spring, was presented to the track team by Dr. Burton J. Ray of Raleigh. The trophy is given each year by the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Raleigh to the track team of a North Carolina college which wins the annual State Meet. The cup is to become the permanent property of the team which wins it three times in succession. The only conditions attached to the cup are that it shall be open to all North Carolina colleges and that it shall be competed for in the city of Raleigh.

The establishment of the cup trophy was due almost solely to the efforts and interest of Dr. Ray. He arranged the meet and secured subscriptions from the citizens of Raleigh for the purchase of the cup. The appreciation of the college community of this patriotic service was well shown by the burst of cheers which greeted Mr. Burton when he presented the cup.

The trophy was accepted by Frank P. Barker on behalf of the "track team, that 'Bloody Nat Cartmell, and the University of North Carolina."

King's Daughters' Bazaar

The King's Daughters will hold their annual bazaar on December 12th from 3:30 to 11 p. m. at Griffin's store, next door to the Pickwick Theater. Many things, such as embroidery, beautifully dressed dolls, and all kinds of hand made articles suitable for Christmas presents will be sold. An assortment of home made candies, chicken salad, coffee, and hot chocolate will also be sold.

The purpose of the bazaar is to raise money with which to help the poor and needy during the cold winter, and especially to bring them some cheer during the Christmas holidays. Fuel, clothes, and food are given them. The sick are visited and properly cared for. Medicine, bills from doctor's and nurses are paid by the money raised at the bazaar. The Society of King's Daughters is the only form of organized charity in Chapel Hill. Its most worthy mission will doubtless be supported by the students.

Tillett Elected Captain.

William Smith Tillett was last Thursday night elected captain of the football team for next year. He is a member of the present junior class and has played on the team one year. He was a member of the scrub team in his freshman year and a substitute on the Varsity last year. He played quarterback on the 1911 team and made one of the best field generals Carolina has had in many days. His election meets with universal approval.

GLEE CLUB TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

An Interesting Program Has Been Prepared For Next Friday Evening

QUARTETTE WITH ITS SIDE-SPLITTING HITS

The Program, Though Shortened on Account of the Fall Dances, Promises to be One of the Most Interesting Ever Presented

On Friday evening, December 8th, at eight o'clock sharp in Gerrard Hall, the University Musical Association will give its annual concert. Mr. George M. Sneath, last year's coach, has been drilling the Glee Club and is well pleased with the way the men have worked. The songs are more difficult than those of last year and therefore will be more attractive and pleasing. Mr. Parker H. Daggett, the successful coach of the orchestra last year, has been unable to take up the work this fall on account of other duties; but the orchestra has been brought into shape by the President of the Association Mr. Howard Pember, '14. The quartette composed of Messrs. Pember, Shofner, Sneath, and Lassiter, will be on hand with its usual side-splitting hits. Further attractions will be in the form of solo numbers. The program has been shortened this year to enable the German Club to begin its dance nearer on time, but promises to be the most interesting and entertaining ever presented. It will consist of the following numbers:

1. Orchestra Selection
2. Glee Club "Laughing Song"
3. Solo, Mr. Sneath, "Fuzzy Wuzzy"
4. Quartette Selected
5. Glee Club "Forester's Song"
6. Orchestra Selected
7. Glee Club "Peter Piper"
8. Violin Solo, Mr. Brown, '15, Selected
9. Quartette Selected
10. Glee Club "Hark the Sound"

Dr. Smith Lectures at Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. Smith lectured last Tuesday night before the Young Men's Christian Association on his trips through the northern part of the Holy Land from Damascus to Jerusalem. He related his adventures in a very interesting manner and graphically described the country scenes, and people. He pictured the country as being in a sad condition and the people of a low, debased, unprogressive class. He said that the people cultivated the fields with instruments similar to those used in Abraham's time and that poverty, disease, and unsanitary conditions were prevalent. The cities of Bethsadia and Capernaum are decayed so that no man knows even where they were, said Dr. Smith, just as Christ prophesied,
