DEFEATS VARSITY

Carolina Puts Up a Game Fight, but is Unable to Hold Heavy Quaker Team

In a game of basketball that was fiercely fought from beginning to end, Carolina met defeat on the floor of the Bynum Gymnasium last Wednesday night at the hands of the Guilford College quint by the score of 35 to 20. The Varsity played a hard game, and at times showed bursts of great speed, but it was simply unable to withstand the grilling attack of the heavier Quaker team. The visiting quint played with a machine-like force that, but for the fierce defense of the Varsity, would have swept all before it.

The game was featured by the occurrence of a great many fouls, personal and otherwise. Both sides were about equally guilty. And each side reaped practically the same benefit from the others' offenses. Hoyos, for Guilford, threw seven fouls; Smith for Carolina, threw eight.

For the visitors Edwards, Benhow, and Hoyos played great ball. Captain Smith, Tillett, and Chambers did the best work for Carolina. The team as a whole showed lack of team work.

wooden of the old bulk will be going up in flames at nearby furnaces. The dormitories which are to take its place have been planned with a view to the future. They will be built in sections as the money becomes available, and and they will eventually flank both sides of the campus. Three sections are to be erected immediately. Each section will be sixty feet long by forty wide and three stories high, with bed rooms and studies, heated by low pressure steam, electric lighted and provided with all modern conveniences. Each section will be named after some distinguished alumnus of the University or some donor in case a section is given the University.

On the second of the lots recently purchased the building to provide recitation rooms, laboratories, and offices for the School of Education, called the George Peabody Hall, will be erected. The Peabody Education Board has appropriated $40,000 for the erection of this building. The building has long been needed to enable the University to properly fulfill its duties and obligations to the State system of schools. That the need is now to be filled means that a wonderful era of increased usefulness and service to the State is opening up before the sons of Carolina.
