Dr. H. M. Wagstaff Speaks to Political Club

Dr. H. McG. Wagstaff spoke to the members of the Political Club Friday afternoon. He discussed in a sane and clear manner the present situation in national politics, and the fitness for the president of the several candidates for that high office.

Dr. Wagstaff said that we are on the eve of making grave changes in our nation and state governments. In the light of this fact, then, he considered the claims of the candidates. Taft and Harmon he discarded as being too distinctly conservative. Likewise Oscar Underwood he ruled out because Mr. Underwood has shown his fitness only in tariff making, and, although the tariff will be a big issue in the campaign, it will not be the only one. The changes to be made, said Dr. Wagstaff, are not to stop with tariff revision. Champ Clark was discarded because he is simply not presidential timber. Senator La Follette, although a progressive, is expected to throw his strength to Roosevelt.

To Dr. Wagstaff the logical candidates of the two parties will be Wilson and Roosevelt. Both are progressives, both advocate those changes in our governmental system that the people are demanding. Mr. Roosevelt's day and time of usefulness has passed, however. Eight years ago he did a great service in awakening the country, but to-day he has nothing new to offer. The third term question will take many votes away from him. His nomination by the Republican Party would be hero worship that in the end never pays. Gov. Wilson, on the other hand, stands unhampered. He is progressive without being dangerous.

After Wagstaff's talk the discussion for a time became general. Different members of the club asked questions about men and issues.

At the meeting of the club Saturday night F. P. Barker discussed the claims of Judson Harmon for the presidency.

Cotillion Club Reorganized

A reorganization of the Cotillion Club was effected at a meeting of its members Monday night. New officers and leaders for the hop were elected. More men attended the meeting and greater interest seemed to have been aroused.

L. N. Morgan and J. S. P. Fenner tendered their resignations as president and treasurer respectively. The elections which followed resulted in the choice of L. N. Morgan, president; H. B. Bonner, treasurer; J. B. Halliburton, leader; H. B. Marrow and S. I. Parker assistants.

A morning dance will be given Easter week by the club to the German Club and to the fraternity men in college.

Study Committee acted as toastmaster and Secretary Hall, Revs. Starr and Stanbury, newly-elected chairman Whiting, President Lockhart and other members of the association responded.

The report for the year was made, and although the number of men enrolled was not so large as formerly, the attendance has been much better. The work this year has certainly been successful.

The members departed feeling much encouraged for another year's work.
