

LOCALS

Tom Hunter, '10, attended the opening of college.

Earl Crosswell, a former star football player at the University, is a visitor here for a few days.

John Tillett '11, William Joyner, '11, and George Wood, ex '12, are among the visitors on the Hill.

Gus Graham, '12, is on the Hill for a few days. He leaves shortly for California where he plans to do some ranching this winter.

W. F. Taylor, '11, and Frank Graham, '06, are among the old students who are back to take Law.

Oscar Leach was in Raleigh Monday and Tuesday, where he did some special work for Superintendent J. Y. Joyner.

Cy Thompson, '11, is among us for a few days helping us out in the matter of life insurance, et cetera.

John W. Hester, '08, has returned to the University and entered the Law School. Since his graduation he has been teaching at Oak Ridge.

R. W. Winston, Jr. spent Sunday night on the Hill, returning Monday to Bingham School; Asheville, where he is engaged as an instructor and as coach for the various teams.

L. N. Morgan, '12, was on the Hill Monday. He left yesterday for Oklahoma, where he is to be an Instructor in English at the State University.

Dr. C. H. Herty has returned home from a trip to Washington and New York. While in New York he attended the sessions of the Eighth International Congress of applied Chemistry.

"Ed" Hall, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. returned Saturday from a very pleasant vacation trip abroad. He was a member of a party that visited Italy, Egypt, the Holy Lands, and other foreign countries of interest.

J. H. Rand, '12, is back on the Hill for a few days. He leaves soon for Brownsville, S. C., where he is principal of the Brownsville High School for the coming year.

Mr. D. R. Fouville, a Phi Beta Kappa man at the University of Virginia, who is now practicing law in Charlotte, will be on the Hill Sunday and will speak to the students about "The College Man And The Bible". He is a recent graduate from college and will interest college men.

Tuesday evening Prof. Williams of the department of Philosophy gave the first of the regular weekly Y. M. C. A. talks in that building. His subject was: "The Measure Of A Man"; Prof. Williams said that the three master passions in men's lives are the passions of Power, Wisdom, and Religion. A man is measured by the success with which he has co-related these three master passions in his life.

On last Wednesday the Tennis Association held its first meeting for this year and elected John Cansler President and Frank Kennedy Secretary and Treasurer.

Besides this election, the good news was made known that work will soon begin on the new courts, which will be just east of our present ones.

Death of Dr. Hume

At the first Faculty meeting held in the session of 1912-1913 President Venable announced the death of Professor Thomas Hume, D. D., LL. D., Professor Emeritus of English Literature in this University.

At the next meeting the following Resolutions were adopted by the Faculty and incorporated in the Journal.

The Faculty of the University of North Carolina has heard with sorrow the announcement of Professor Thomas Hume's death. Altho for the past few years ill health had debarred him from active service, his undiminished intellectual gifts, his sterling character, his courtesy, and his unflinching interest in the affairs of our common life continued to be as before an inspiration to those whose privilege it was to visit him in his home.

It is difficult to state adequately the many spheres in which his influence was until a few years ago actively felt.

As a teacher he was untiring in zeal for the development of his students; he was founder and inspirer of the Shakespeare Club; he contributed important papers to the Philological Club; to the Young Men's Christian Association he gave freely his counsel and his practical support; he devoted to his church a loving and intelligent service, and finally he responded gladly, tho at times perhaps with serious personal inconvenience, to frequent calls to lecture in the cities of this State and of other States. As has been fitly said, he always gave his best.

Dr. Hume's discourses gave evidence of good thought and of deep critical insight; they possessed also the charm of an accurate and elegant style. Even his extempore speeches produced the impression of finished form.

He was himself an untiring worker and he had the power of stimulating others to work. The University of North Carolina values his work. It mourns the loss of such a friend and colleague, and to those who suffer most by his departure it offers its respectful sympathy.

H. E. RIGGS PASSED AWAY

H. E. Riggs, a member of the class of 1912 of the University of North Carolina, died June 16th, in the auspicious morning of manhood, when just ready to begin his life-work. Possessed of a mind keen for knowledge, urged on by a will earnest in endeavor, and upheld by a character courageous, he was one of the promising men of the class. By his death, the class loses one of its most loyal members and the University one of its most devoted ones.

Therefore, be it resolved:

That while we, his fellow members of the class of 1912, sincerely mourn our present loss in the death of our esteemed classmate and friend, we are clearly conscious that "What is excellent is permanent." Consequently, we as fully rejoiced in his life as we deeply deplore his death.

That we share the loss of the bereft family in this affliction, and extend to them a brotherly sympathy in their sorrow.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and copies be sent to the Charlotte Observer, the Mount Airy News, and the Tar Heel for publication.

Resolutions by A. T. O. Fraternity

Having heard with deep regret and sorrow of the deplored accident, which caused the untimely death of our College mate, I. W. Rand, and while we believe that the events leading up to the accident which caused his death were not taken part in by any member of this Fraternity, and we also believe that the said events were not prompted by any feeling of malice or of ill intention toward him on the part of those taking part in the same; yet we greatly deplore his death and the causes leading up to it, and therefore be it resolved by the Alpha Delta Chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity in Chapter assembled:

First. That we sympathize with the bereaved family of our deceased college mate, and in his death the University of North Carolina has lost a promising student, and a respected college mate.

Secondly. That commencing from the date hereof and being in force for all time to come the Alpha Delta Chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity will not receive into its membership any one who has participated in hazing in any form in this University up to the time of his Initiation and until he has pledged himself to abstain from hazing in any form while a member of this Chapter.

Third. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Tar Heel, The ATOPalm, our official organ, and that a copy be sent to the President of the University and to the Governor of the State.
Sept. 16th 1912.

Alumni System of Coaching

What is regarded as the first step toward the adoption of an alumni system of coaching will be tried during the football season. It is Captain Tillett's plan to have at least one alumnus coach on the field at all times to give whatever advice he can and particularly to arouse the spirit of the squad and incidentally of the entire university. In pursuance of this plan the following Old Carolina stars have been asked to come to Chapel Hill at various times during the season: "Coach" Simmons, George Stephens, Jacobs, Bull Thompson, John A. Parker, Max Gardner, Sprunt Newton, Wm. Fisher, George Graham, George Thomas, Bob Reynolds, Albert Cox, "Doggie" Trenchard, Roach Stewart. Coach Simmons will be here Monday the 23rd for a weeks stay. All of these men have been crack players and many have had experience in coaching. The outcome of the plan will be watched with much interest. If successful, it is probable that a complete system of alumni coaching will be adopted in the near future.
